

BOMB STRIKES TERROR

W.F. KELLY RESIGNS AS TRACTION MANAGER

Oakland Official to Leave Services of Corporations After Fifteen Years of Active Service

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Oakland, Cal., April 6, 1911.

To the Board of Directors of Oakland Traction Company and San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Consolidated Railway.

Gentlemen—Observing that most men retire from the active cares of business only when they have failed, or are incapacitated for active duty, I promised myself on entering the street railway service that whatever the result of my efforts, in no event would I remain in active duty for a longer period than twenty-five years. That time has now elapsed and I deem it my duty to redeem that promise.

Some esteem it a glory to "die in the harness," but for myself I prefer the freedom and larger leisure which comes from laying it aside. While yet there is joy in living I desire the opportunity to direct my time and efforts as fancy may dictate. To this end I present herewith my resignation as general manager of both the Key Route and Oakland Traction Companies, effective May 1. During the month of May my services, if desired, are at your command in an advisory capacity upon any of the work now in contemplation or under way.

APPRECIATES SUPPORT.

More than half of my street railway experience has been in the service of your company and I wish to express my hearty appreciation of your cordial support and co-operation in whatever measure of success has attended my efforts. Time, patience and increasing effort have solved many of the difficulties of the past and your properties are now in an excellent condition with a corps of operatives honest, efficient, trustworthy and loyal to the highest degree.

I would especially commend to your most favorable consideration the various heads of departments and trust that opportunity may speedily afford a substantial recognition of their well-merited and efficient service.

It is most gratifying that our business and personal relations have been most cordial and harmonious throughout the entire period of our association and I trust they may so continue. Your various enterprises are now entering upon a period rich in great possibilities and I bespeak for them the fullest success.

Very sincerely,

W. F. KELLY.

Wealthy Rancher Alleges He Was Forced to Marry at Gun's Point

Now Seeks Annulment of the Contract by Decree of Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Claiming that he was forced into an unwilling marriage almost at the point of a revolver, that he was imprisoned and held in duress by the family of his prospective bride for a day prior to the wedding, and then menaced by a loaded revolver in the hands of his brother-in-law to be until he consented to procure a license, Henry Clay Burris, a wealthy rancher, brother of a Santa Rosa banker and son of a pioneer citizen of Sonoma county, filed suit for an annulment of his marriage to Sarah Jane Duffy at the county clerk's office today.

Attorney J. R. Leppo of Santa Rosa has been retained for the defense, with Attorney Porter Ashe of this city to assist him. The last named gentleman refused absolutely to give any further facts connected with the case for publication.

The complaint, however, states that on March 18 young Burris, accompanied Miss Duffy to her home at her invitation about 11 p. m. The young woman resided with her sisters, Gertrude and Mary, at 2221-A Market street, and on their arrival, Burris alleges, James Duffy, the brother, and a man named George E. Joseph compelled him to remain in the house and kept him until 11 o'clock on Sunday, March 19. James Duffy he says, thereupon told him, displaying a loaded revolver, that unless he married his sister he would kill him.

The county clerk was communicated with and, although it was a holiday, the office was open and Burris alleges Duffy forced him, "coerced and compelled him" to accompany himself and Joseph, with Miss Sarah Jane Duffy, whereupon a license was issued, and the party proceeded before Justice of the Peace E. T. Barnett, where the ceremony was performed, the unhappy groom being, it is said, under the constant menace of a revolver in the hands of Duffy, a young law student of this city.

According to other information received, it is said that the chauffeur who drove the taxicab, on seeing that there was something peculiar about the transaction, balked and was forced to proceed also at the point of a loaded weapon.

Miss Duffy is the sister of a local police officer, but he did not figure in the transaction. Following the sensational wedding, Burris claims he left his wife and has since continued to remain apart from her. He is 28 years old and the woman about the same age.

The defense will claim that a trap was laid by the woman herself, who, it is said, had known Burris for a long time and had even been on a trip to San Jose with him.

BLACK HAND THREATENS TO KIDNAP A CHILD

FELICE CASSOU, 8-year-old boy, who is being closely guarded owing to threats that he will be kidnaped. The boy is watched going to and from school and is not allowed to play in the streets.

SLEEPERS ROUSED BY EXPLOSION AT CASSOU BAKERY

Blackmailing Letters Are Followed by Attempt to Blow Up Building

Boy Closely Guarded as Result of Demand for $2000 and Threats to Commit Murder

'BLACK HAND' LETTERS RECEIVED BY J. CASSOU

Mr. Cassou—You are obliged to bring $2000 to this place between Sixth and Seventh and Jefferson street, Oakland, in this place is an empty lot right hand corner, is a pile of stones and place the money there and replace the stone. If you don't bring the money by Friday night your place of business will be blown up and you will go up with it, if you will take later than Friday night your son Felice will be taken away from you then you will be obliged to pay $5000. If you put wise the cops Dam site worse for you.

BLACK HAND.

Mr. Cassou—Last time we told you to leave the $2000 in Jefferson Park. Today we order you to take it to Union Park, San Francisco. We see that you take good care of your son Felix. Now is your last chance. Take the Union street car, get off at Union St., walk alongside the park till you come to the men's toilet. You will find the gate closed, but leave the money on the right side of Filbert St. Remember this is your last chance, Friday, April 14, time 10:30 p. m. You will be sorry if you make the cops wise; we will take your son from you and blow you and your family.

(Signed)

BLACK HAND.

Following threats to dynamite the home and bakery of J. Cassou and to kidnap his 8-year-old son, Felice, a bomb was exploded shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, wrecking part of the building at 811 Clay street, terrorizing the employees of the building and the lodgers at the Reno apartment house in Fifth street.

The letters received by Cassou in the past three weeks were signed "Black Hand," and demanded $2000 to be either hidden in a vacant lot in this city or in Golden Gate Park. They made threats against Cassou and his family and declared that they would destroy the house, murder the family and kidnap the Cassou's young son.

The aid of the police has been invoked and a guard is being kept on the place. Cassou at first did not credit the "Black Hand" threats, and afterwards feared that the anxiety of his wife would endanger her life, as she was in poor health and the fear that anything might happen to the boy, Felice, might have grave consequences.

Mrs. Cassou in Serious Condition

As a result of the attempt to destroy the house last night Mrs. Cassou is prostrated and in a precarious condition, and the people of the bakery in terror of their lives.

The first letter was received by Cassou March 28, and attempts by blackmail scheme which the criminals behind the affair hoped might be successful through the dire vengeance they prophesied

Police Judge Conlan of San Francisco Is Dying

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Judge Charles C. Conlan, veteran of the San Francisco police bench, who for nearly twenty years has presided over department two, is dying at his home, 590 Page street. For several months past the jurist has been in poor health, suffering from a complication of diseases. Several times he rallied and it was thought that he might be again able to assume his duties. Yesterday, however, there came a turn for the worse and his brother, Dr. William Conlan, who has been attending him, has given up all hope and expects the end at any moment.

The sorrowing wife and Dr. Conlan, the only near relatives of the stricken man, are at his bedside.

Judge Conlan has been repeatedly re-elected and had his hardest political fight two years ago when he triumphed over John J. Sullivan by only one vote in the recount. His term has still two years to run. Prior to his taking the bench, he was for two years an assistant district attorney, and was the youngest prosecutor San Francisco ever had.

Justice of the Peace Treadwell has been assuming his duties during his illness.

'NEVER AGAIN!' SAYS 'LI'L ARTHA'

Johnson Will Go Free After Serving His Sentence

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Tomorrow 'Li'l Arthur Johnson will work his last day's labor out the stables and roadways of the county jail. For twenty-five days his hands, accustomed only to the boxing glove and the steering wheel of a whirling auto, have been forced to perform work both distasteful and unpleasant, according to the opinion of the champion fighter.

"When I get out of here," said Johnson, "I'll run that car so that a lame horse could beat me six lengths in a block. Honest, I'll take no chances again, no more twenty-five days for mine."

Some of the pugilist's friends are suggesting a mule team as a safe and dependable means of transit for him in the future.

Tomorrow at midnight and as the clock goes one minute into Sunday morn, the fighter will be free.

Result of D.A.R. Election Is Yet a Matter of Doubt

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The results of yesterday's election at the convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution will not be known until tonight. A resolution by the congress at 2 p. m., calling for a report on the vote for the president-general brought the response from the tellers that no results were ready. Conflicting reports are abroad.

MADERO OUT WITH FINAL ULTIMATUM

Declares Evacuation of Juarez All That Will Avoid Complication With United States

EL PASO, April 21.—If the Mexican government would avoid international complications, it must order General Navarro to evacuate Juarez at once. This is the ultimatum sent by General Francisco I. Madero, Jr., to Dr. Vasquez Gomez at Washington today, to be communicated to the Mexican government.

In addition General Madero sent word to Dr. Gomez by way of the El Paso Junta that he was well aware of the differences between an armistice and peace negotiations, which it was suggested would follow the armistice.

EVACUATION ESSENTIAL.

General Madero has taken the position that an evacuation of Juarez is essential before he will consider an armistice. He is desirous of establishing a headquarters from which to conduct formal negotiations with the Mexican government.

The reply of the Mexican government is expected to be received here from Dr. Gomez at Washington, and it is very probable that any attack on Juarez will be postponed until it arrives. Allowing for the time of communication it is not believed the answer will reach here before midnight.

REBELS ARE QUIET.

There was no activity in the insurgent camp up to 11 o'clock. The insurgents have been lazily lounging about the river banks in the sun, washing their clothes, bathing their feet, watering their horses and following other peaceful pursuits. So far no important messages have been delivered to the insurgent camp by the messengers from the El Paso Junta.

Madero just before noon declared: "Nothing has occurred up to this time to make me change my mind about attacking Juarez."

Mrs. Madero arrived this morning from San Antonio, where she had been staying since Madero went to Mexico.

LIKE MARDI GRAS.

Flags of all nations again give Juarez a mardi gras appearance. All shop windows have been boarded up, not to prevent breakage of glass, but to prevent thefts in case the glass is broken by bullets. Few families remain in Juarez and only Americans having business there are visiting the town.

Diaz' Soldiers in Juarez Wait Madero's Attack

EL PASO, April 21.—The armies of Diaz and Madero were marking time today. Madero has given his word that he will not attack before this afternoon unless attacked. His army is waiting just outside of Juarez.

Inside the town, heavily fortified, are the 750 loyal soldiers of Diaz waiting for the attack. The federals are ready for the battle, they declare, any time Madero opens it.

Meanwhile Madero and his men are waiting for Porfirio Diaz, President of Mexico, to send word that he is willing to resign the presidency. This they declare is the only thing that will prevent an attack on Juarez.

Yesterday morning Madero sent notice to the foreign consuls in Juarez that "Juarez may be attacked any time after midnight, April 20."

There has been no indication that the answer of Diaz to Madero's demand to resign will be favorable.

The Juarez military officials appear confident of the completeness of their fortifications and American army officers compliment them as excellent samples of engineering work. Not only is the town heavily fortified itself, but it has several field guns and three or four rapid fire guns calculated to prove most effective in scattering the enemy when the guns are put into action.

The United States troops that have been in camp near Fort Bliss, have moved down into the city and are now camped close to the border. These troops are in addition to those on active border patrol.

Gen. Rojas and 250 Rebels March Into Nacozari, Sonora

NACOZARI, Sonora, Mex., April 21.—Antonio Rojas with 250 rebels entered this town today. The appearance of the insurgent army caused some excitement but did not interfere with the operation of the big concentrator of the Motosuma Copper and Phelps-Dodge Companies.

The rebels are seemingly well supplied with funds and purchased for cash large quantities of supplies at the copper company store. The soldiers were quiet and orderly.

MEXICO CITY, April 21.—President Diaz ordered today the release of Edward H. Blatt and Lawrence Converse, Americans, who were arrested by government troops and imprisoned in Juarez.

Madero Confused Peace Negotiations Thinks Dr. Gomez

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Confusion as to the interpretation of an armistice is believed by Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the confidential agency of the Mexican revolutionists, to be responsible for the hitch in the truce, which had been partly arranged with the Mexican government and which Madero rejected. Gomez telegraphed Madero today not to confuse the armistice proposition with a peace proposal which was to follow.

Berthold Marches On Ensenada; Will Attack in 24 Hours

ENSENADA, Lower California, April 20, via San Diego, Cal., April 21.—The steamer San Diego sailed today for San Diego, Cal., with many of the most prominent residents aboard and what is believed to be the most of the valuables of the fleeing passengers. General Simon Berthold is said to have sent word to Governor Celso Vega that he will attack Ensenada within twenty-four hours and that those who remain in the town do so at their peril.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Major Geo. E. Pickett, son of General Pickett, the famous confederate leader, died on an army transport Logan while en route from Manila to San Francisco, according to a cablegram received by the War Department from Nagasaki. Major Pickett, a native of Virginia, was 46 years of age. He was attached to the paymasters' department.

Kelly and Cochran Must Serve Terms

Henry Affinity's Appeal From Sentence Denied by Supreme Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The Supreme Court this afternoon denied the appeal of Attorney James W. Cochran and S. Foster Kelly from Judge Mogan's order sentencing them to five days in the county jail for contempt of court in the Henry case. They have already served one day of the term.

Attorney Cochran, when interviewed at the county jail today said: "I would rather spend six months in the county jail than one hour in Judge Mogan's court."

ST. JOSEPH'S WILL MEET TURKEY REDS ON SUNDAY

FRUITVALE, April 21.—After trimming the Moss Beach aggregation to the tune of 3 to 1 last Sunday, the baseball team of the Fruitvale St. Joseph's will line up against the crack team of the Turkey Reds next Sunday afternoon, at Fruitvale Recreation Park. Joseph Du Foss, formerly of the St. Mary's Phoenix team, will captain the Fruitvale team, and under his leadership the Sodality boys expect to beat their opponents. Sinclair will be on the mound for the Turkey Reds, while Russell and Perry will constitute the St. Joseph's battery. The complete lineup is as follows: St. Joseph's: Russell, pitcher; Perry, catcher; Sepp, first base; DuFoss, second base; Spear, third base; L. Ryan, shortstop; E. Ryan, center field; Frank Collins, left field; Turkey Reds: Sinclair, pitcher; Enos, catcher; Phillips, first base; Harris, second base; Robinson, third base; Rely, shortstop; Thomas, center field; Duke, left field; Leather, right field.

CHILD FATALLY BURNED BY OIL

Little Tots Left Alone by the Parents Try to Start Fire With Kerosene.

ELMHURST, April 21.—Falling to realize the seriousness of burns received by her two-year-old sister when a stove exploded in the rear of their residence at 1011 Eighty-fifth avenue yesterday, Grace Tappan, colored, allowed the child to die of its injuries before she summoned help. The mother and father of the pair left the house early in the morning, leaving the two children to do the housework. According to the statement told by the elder one, the fire in the kitchen stove was low and to relight it she poured a quantity of oil on the smoldering coals. The two-year-old daughter, Anna Nellie, toddled over to the stove and leaned over it just as a burst of flame and smoke spouted out. The child was covered from head to foot with burning oil. Grace, the elder, seeing the misfortune of the baby, swung the dripping dish cloth which she held in her hands over the little body and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. She then calmly put the child to bed and waited for her mother to arrive home. In the meantime the baby died, and was later removed to the branch morgue.

OLD DEBT LEADS TO BLOODY DUEL

Railroad Employees Engage in Fight; One Man May Die.

LIVERMORE, April 21.—Following words in a dispute over an old debt, Steve Lopez and M. Martinez, section hands in the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, engaged in a bloody knife duel last night which will probably result in the death of Martinez. While the injured man was rolling on the floor, witnesses say, Lopez jumped on him and beat him over the head with the butt end of a revolver until he was unconscious. Martinez tried to shield himself from the rain of blows and in doing so inflicted slight wounds about the head and arms of his assailant. Lopez was released by the police when Martinez refused to place any charges against him.

FINDING A MAN TO FIT A SUIT VERSUS MAKING A SUIT TO FIT A MAN QUITE A DIFFERENCE

The difference in wearing quality of a ready-made suit and one that is made to your order by the English Woolen Mills system is about one-half. An awful strain on a piece of cloth when it is not made into a suit to fit. Why not the English Woolen Mills system?

Remember you do not order our garments six months in advance.

The latest official tailoring fashion plates do not appear until after the ready-made clothes are on the counters three or six months. "How can the ready-made clothing be stylish?" "Think it over." I make clothing with up-to-now styles.

I measure you first and then the clothes are made to fit you.

The ready-made man gets clothes after they are made and then tries to change your shape to fit the clothes.

MILLS COLLEGE TO BE SCENE OF GAIETY

State Branch of the National Association of Collegiate Alumnae Guests.

PROVISION MADE FOR ENTERTAINING 400

Mrs. Susan Mills and President Luella Carson Will Be Hostesses.

Mills College will be the scene of the liveliest activity tomorrow, when the California branch of the National Association of Collegiate Alumnae will be entertained by Mrs. Susan Mills and President Luella Carson. This will be a personal affair with the college people and will be one of the largest social events in local history. Nearly 400 guests are expected and arranged for, and altogether it will be a most fitting celebration at this time, being on the eve of a new era for the seminary being abolished permanently on May 4. Mills College is rapidly becoming possessed of the necessary requirements to make it eligible to join the membership of the College Alumnae, which consummation is universally desired.

Mrs. Lorenzo Dow Inskip, president of the California branch, says she is confident of a large attendance, which, aside from the social element, will be of the utmost importance at this time, when delegates will be selected to attend the State Federation at Long Beach May 10 to 16. This election will take place at Mills just before luncheon, at the close of which Mrs. Susan Mills and President Carson will address the guests on college matters.

President Carson has but recently returned from Southern California, where she delivered a number of lectures concerning the future of the western woman before the various clubs and educational institutions. As Mills College is popular south of the Tehachapi, it is expected that a considerable number of delegates will attend the reception from the Southland.

At 2:30 o'clock the girls of the sophomore class will entertain for the benefit of the entertainment of the guests the operetta "Trial by Jury," which they presented so successfully a short time ago. The news of their success has spread and the guests express themselves as being eager to hear and witness the girls' interpretation of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta. At the close of the performance President Carson will conduct the guests upon a tour of the grounds, visiting such places of interest as the Kapiolani cottage, the famous library, the laboratory of the domestic sciences, the biological departments, and Sunnyside, the private burial place of Cyrus T. Mills, the original founder of the college.

VAUDEVILLE DRAWS OUT BIG CROWD

St. Mary's Entertainment Well Patronized; 'The Shyster' Presented.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—A vaudeville and musical entertainment by the alumni association of the Christian brothers of Oakland and San Francisco was given before a large audience last night in the Central theater. The proceeds of the entertainment, which was in charge of Brother Joseph of St. Mary's college, will be used for gymnasium equipment.

The first number was an overture by the St. Mary's orchestra, following which Justice Thomas J. Lennon made a short address.

Dances were performed under the direction of Miss Daisy Wright by Misses Dorothy Balerga, Ruth Stanley, Viola Eaber, Marjorie Holt and Gladys Balerga. The dancing numbers were followed by a violin solo by Miss V. Schoroth and a soprano solo by Miss Suetta E. Coppen, with Frances Buckland as accompanist.

"The Shyster," a one-act play written by Will Scarlett, was the third number. The leading part was taken by Charles Russell. He was assisted by Charles T. Mout, Blane E. Leitch, Edward T. Martin and Timothy T. Shea.

Monologues were given by Dr. Leo J. McMahon and Dr. J. W. Shields. A scene from "Cinderella" was given under the direction of Miss Anita Peters and Mrs. Cecelia von Seiberlich.

Martin V. Merie was stage manager.

RAKE UP BLOODY RELICS OF CRIME

Bones, Blood-Stained Axe and Club Clotted With Hair Found at Chico.

CHICO, April 21.—Gross evidence of a brutal murder, believed to have been committed Wednesday night, was found by the police yesterday on the river bank near this city. A bloodstained axe, a club clotted with hair, thought to be that of a woman, and several small bones like those contained in a human skull that were raked out of the ashes of a wood fire, were among the grim relics discovered. According to the police the river bank revealed evidence of a body having been dragged along the ground and slid into the water. The end gate of a wagon, blood spattered, was found partly consumed in the fire.

The theory of the police is that the murderer drove with his victim last night to a camping ground near which the evidence of the crime was found and there burned the head after severing it from the body. Bedding and groceries were also thrown into the stream, but because of the approach of daylight and his fear of discovery the murderer was not given sufficient time to conceal all traces of his work. The actual murder, it is thought was committed several miles from the river.

An empty wagon was found near the spot and two horses, believed to have belonged to the murderer, were wandering in a field a mile away. Several campers were sleeping within forty yards of where the wagon drew up, but no heed was paid to its arrival.

YOU CAN HAVE HEALTHY HAIR

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. A Harmless Remedy That Makes the Hair Grow.

What a pity it is to observe so many people with thin and faded hair and then realize that the most of these people might have a fine, healthy head of hair if they would but use the simple "sage tea" of our grandmothers, combined with other ingredients for restoring and preserving the hair. No one, young or old, need have gray hair, weak, thin or falling hair, dandruff or any trouble of the sort if they would but use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. On the contrary, it is possible to have healthy, vigorous hair, of perfect color, by a few applications of this remarkable preparation. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly removes dandruff, leaves the scalp clean and healthy, promotes the growth of the hair and restores the natural color of the hair which has become faded or gray. It is a clean, wholesome dressing, which may be used at any time and with perfect safety. Don't neglect your hair. Start today with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

LAST HONORS FOR PIONEER DOCTOR

Robert Caldwell Dies in San Jose After an Eventful Life.

SAN JOSE, April 21.—Dr. Robert Caldwell, a pioneer physician, known all over this section of the state, is dead here. He was a graduate of Santa Clara college and had traveled extensively, practicing his profession for several years in Nagasaki, Japan.

Dr. Caldwell was a member of the famous expedition of the Western Union Telegraph Company, which was fitted out to build a telegraph line along the Pacific coast through what was then Russian America, across the Bering straits and through Siberia and Russian Europe to St. Petersburg in case the Atlantic cable, then being constructed, should be a failure. This expedition cost the Western Union the useless expenditure of some $3,000,000, as the cable was successfully laid and operated.

$40,000 WORTH OF LOTS SOLD

The Public Anticipates Opening Sale at Piedmont Manor by Advance Purchases.

Piedmont Manor, the only remaining unsold subdivision in Oakland located close to the existing Key Route lines, is proving so attractive to the public that the opening day sale on Sunday next is being anticipated by the wise, who have already purchased lots therein to the aggregate amount of $40,000.

Piedmont Manor is situated within eight minutes' walking distance of the Key Route station, thereby making it possible to arrive in San Francisco within thirty-five minutes from the time of leaving the tract, and at a commutation rate of $3 per month.

The Realty Syndicate is laying out Piedmont Manor in an unusually attractive way and is offering no lot having a frontage of less than sixty feet. This feature is attracting the attention of people who desire artistic homes, for they realize that no matter how attractive the residences, if the lot be small its value, both artistically and monetarily, is depreciated.

From an investment standpoint, it is the contention of the Realty Syndicate that Piedmont Manor is the best proposition of the kind which has been offered in this locality for some years.

A large attendance is anticipated at the opening day sale tomorrow morning.

FEAR AMERICAN NAVAL MENACE

"Training Ships" on the Great Lakes Regarded as Ominous by British.

LONDON, April 21.—The Morning Post in an editorial on the work of the coming imperial conference, suggests that the committee on imperial defense take the opportunity to discuss how to meet the American naval menace on the Great Lakes.

The Post declares that it does not matter that these vessels are called training ships; their presence is a violation of the Rush-Pagot treaty and a standing menace to Canadian independence. It would be better from the British standpoint, the paper says, to let the Americans renounce the treaty if they do not wish to abide by its terms.

Finally the Post proposes the postponement of the lord mayor's meeting in support of the arbitration treaty until the American government has given an evidence of its good faith by dismantling its navy on the Great Lakes in accordance with the existing peace treaty.

KELLY RESIGNS AS TRACTION CO. MANAGER

Oakland Official Leaves Corporation After 15 Years of Service.

nal; the line on Piedmont avenue to Mountain View cemetery; the lines on Twelfth, Fourteenth and Sixteenth streets to the western part of the city, the extension on Twenty-third avenue, north of East Fourteenth street; the Fruitvale avenue line; the line on Thirteenth avenue to the Alameda, the system extending to Hayward, and several others of minor importance.

During his administration these lines, which were of various gauges and mostly all of which had become wrecks by reason of inadequate finances to put them in good condition, have undergone reconstruction and rehabilitation, making them stable and enduring, and rendering them successful and remunerative feeders to the trunk lines which now connect all parts of the company.

NEW LINES BUILT.

During Kelly's administration also there have been a number of new lines built. As a consequence of this work, which required not alone capital, but managerial ability, new settlements have grown up which are now tributary to this city.

Among these may be mentioned the Piedmont extension, the rehabilitation of the line to Hayward, the rebuilding of the Alameda system, the new College avenue line, the road to Alameda, the redriving of the East Sixteenth street line, the new service to Twenty-seventh street and Fruitvale avenue, the Fourth avenue line which has opened one of the most picturesque sections of Oakland, together with several other lines in that vicinity.

KEY ROUTE SYSTEM.

Added to this was the management of the great Key Route system, which has been extended to the northern limits of Berkeley, to Piedmont, to Claremont and to Oakland, in which the same capacity and success were displayed and achieved as was in the management and rehabilitation of the Oakland arteries of the company.

For a long time Oakland has enjoyed the reputation of having one of the best street car systems in the country, and no small amount of credit for this is due to the retiring manager.

Kelly, when seen by a TRIBUNE reporter this afternoon, was asked if his resignation had been inspired by any misunderstanding or conflict arising out of the division of property interests which for a long time had been jointly held by F. M. Smith and F. C. Havens, both original projectors of the two traction companies here referred to, and replied in the negative. He said:

FRIENDLY RELATIONS.

"There is no reason for my resigning save as I have expressed it in my letter. The most friendly relationship exists between me and those with whom I am associated, and as you see, I am willing to continue to discharge the duties of this office until the time specified.

"It is my intention to do anything in the future that I choose, consistent with the desire to lead a life of ease and comfort, and so long as I am enabled to do it. My associates are friends and I am friendly disposed toward them. As you see, the date of my resignation is April 6. Its publicity was not made known at that time for the reason that some of the directors were away and some of them returned only a few days ago.

"I have been constantly engaged for the last fifteen years and am pleased now to take a rest with kindly feelings for all with whom I have been associated."

WHO WILL BE SUCCESSOR?

Considerable interest is being displayed as to who will be the successor of Mr. Kelly, but attaches of the company say they have no idea on the subject.

F. M. Smith declined to discuss the matter or even the resignation of Mr. Kelly this afternoon owing to pressure of important business of another character.

E. A. Heron, president of the Traction company, was not at his office when the representative of THE TRIBUNE sought information on the subject and, it was stated by his representative,

MEER HONORED AT CONCLAVE OAKLANDER IS GIVEN OFFICE

Grand Commandery of Knights Templar Elects Officers in San Jose

SAN JOSE, April 21.—At the election of officers of the fifty-third annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of California, which opened here yesterday, Eminent Sir Rodolph Wallace Meek of Oakland, commander of the Knights Templar of Oakland, was elected deputy grand commander.

The convocation opened with a parade in which 1600 knights marched, and besides the election of officers the report of the grand commander, Eminent Sir Knight Louis F. Breuner, was read, and a ball and reception were held last night. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Grand commander, Albert Augustine Caldwell; deputy grand commander, Rodolph Wallace Meek; grand generalissimo, William Augustus Hammel; grand captain, General James Robert Tapscott; grand senior warden, Elmer Ellsworth Stone; grand prelate, Reuben Henry Sink; grand treasurer, Charles Lord Field; grand recorder, William Abraham Devise; grand standard bearer, Samuel Andrews Clarke; grand sword bearer, Jonathan Morfrew Peel; grand warden, Judge Bledsoe; grand organist, Samuel David Mayer; grand captain of the guard, George Washington Perkins.

THOUSAND AT BALL.

The ball and reception were held at the Vendome hotel and was attended by nearly a thousand local and visiting knights and their ladies, delegates from fifty-one commanderies from all sections of California being represented. The streets of the city are hung with flags and bunting in honor of the visitors.

Trolley trips to Saratoga, Campbell, Los Gatos, Stanford University and other points in the valley made up the program of the knights today. The 1600 or more knights went in groups in various directions.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the order of business was the excommunication of the order of the temple by California commandery No. 1. An exhibition drill team will be given in the auditorium this evening.

J. Q. Brown is the present assistant general manager and engineer, and has filled those positions for the past twelve years as the associate of Mr. Kelly, but he would say nothing at all on the subject.

BROWN FOR SUCCESSOR.

J. Q. Brown, assistant general manager of the Traction company, will likely succeed Mr. Kelly.

Mr. Brown is considered one of the most competent street railroad men in the west. He has been connected with railroads since he was a boy.

Mr. Brown has practically managed the Oakland Traction company's lines for the past several years. He is a very competent man in every line of railroad work.

Next year's convocation of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar will be held in San Diego.

SPECIAL TRAIN LEAVES.

A special train chartered by the Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley commanderies of Knights Templar, left First street and Broadway yesterday with a large delegation of knights to attend the big convocation in San Jose.

Rodolph W. Meek of Oakland, who was yesterday elected deputy grand commander, is an active and energetic Mason, and his election is considered a distinctive honor, not only to himself, but to Oakland commandery.

NO MORE GAS IN STOMACH AND BOWELS

Not Only Relief, But Cure for All Time.

If you wish to be permanently relieved of Gas in the Stomach and Bowels, take two BAALMAN'S GAS-TABLETS for a few days.

BAALMAN'S GAS-TABLETS are prepared distinctly and especially for Stomach Gas and particularly for all the bad effects coming from Gas Pressure.

That empty, gone and gnawing feeling at the pit of your stomach will forever disappear in a few days; that anxious and nervous feeling, with heart palpitation, will vanish and you will once more be able to take a deep breath, so often prevented by gas pressing against your heart and lungs.

Your limbs, arms and fingers won't feel cold and you won't sleep, because BAALMAN'S GAS-TABLETS prevent gas interfering with the circulation; that intense drowsiness and sleepy feeling after dinner will soon be replaced by a desire for some form of entertainment.

Your distended stomach will reduce by inches, because gas simply cannot form after a few days' use of BAALMAN'S GAS-TABLETS.

Another evidence of hundreds of people that have been cured of Gas in their stomachs and bowels the last few days:

Mrs. Louise Gualti, Los Angeles, Cal., writes as follows: "After taking Baalman's Gas Tablets one week found it not necessary to continue, as I felt perfectly relieved."

Mrs. C. M. Jones, Sebastopol, Cal., writes: "I never saw anything that would take the place of Baalman's Gas-Tablets. I have been taking treatment for dyspepsia for 2 1/2 years and my stomach was, if anything, worse than when I began. I have now been taking Baalman's Gas-Tablets for three weeks and feel very much better."

Mr. W. H. Booth, vice-president Equitable Savings Bank, Los Angeles, says: "Baalman's Gas-Tablets are the greatest and most effective remedy ever made for gas in the stomach and bowels."

These peculiar tablets are sold for 50c a bottle by nearly every druggist. If not in stock, tell him to get them for you from his wholesaler, or send 50c in silver, stamps or money order to Hahnemann Pharmacy, 334 Sutter St., San Francisco.

BUILDING IS DAMAGED BY BLACK HAND BOMB

against Cassou and his family. They threatened especial vengeance if he should "put the police wise."

This letter demanded that he place $2000 in a bag under a pile of rocks in a vacant lot at Jefferson street, between Sixth and Seventh streets. It threatened that his son would be kidnapped if he failed, and his place of business destroyed.

When he ignored this letter a second was sent. This demanded that he place the money in Union Square Park, and included the same threats. Both letters are written in ink, painfully spelled out in a hand-script hard to decipher. Misspelling and illiteracy mark both communications.

Cassou turned the letters over to Detectives McSorley and Flynn, who were detailed to investigate the case today. The police are planning a careful round-up to identify the blackmailers, if possible, and careful guard is being kept to protect Cassou and his wife and son.

J. Cassou is one of the most wealthy bakery proprietors in Alameda county, and supplies to restaurants and cafes in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and other cities. He owns a large factory building at Clay and Fifth streets, valued at $50,000, housing the bakery, and a number of stores and apartments. He resides at 512 1/2 Clay street, the bakery being at 511 Clay street.

IN STATE OF TERROR.

Speaking of the attack made upon his place and the events that led up to it, Cassou said this afternoon:

"We have been living in a state bordering on panic for the past three weeks. My eight-year-old boy, Felice, has been taken by my employees and there has not been a moment when we were not under the most painful anxiety."

"We did not know where to look to avoid the bomb. The letters were directed to the heart of the Italian quarter and was sent by special delivery. The letters bore every mark of being genuine. They were written in a dialect that indicated the writer to be an Americanized Italian, unfamiliar with the English language."

"My boy is his mother's very life, and any thing that might happen to him would mean tragedy to her. What could I do? I guarded the boy as best I could. But the time we have waited since the first letter was received has been filled with worry and fear."

WAITED AND WATCHED.

"The first letter was received March 28. Then we waited and watched, and several times at times I thought I saw people lurking about the building. But I was not sure and the letter had made threats of vengeance if I should notify the police."

"My second letter came April 10 and called upon me if I valued my life and the welfare of my son to leave the money in San Francisco at a certain place and hour. I had almost decided to comply to save my boy from injury and my wife from anxiety. But I did not know whether that would help any. If I gave them money once, they might call upon me to do the same again, and the consequence of complying would be worse than that of refusing."

"Felice is eight years old. He attends St. Mary's parochial school. It is only about a block from here, and I have had him watch on his way to and from school to see that no harm shall come to him. And his mother does not let him play on the streets."

"Everything seems to point to this being the work of some mysterious black hand organization. I think that the people who have attempted my life and that of my family, and who have tried to intimidate me must be foreigners."

"The family of Dr. DePuy of St. Mary's church was informed of the attempt to blow up the Cassou building and murder the family of the baker. He called at the home this afternoon and assured Mrs. Cassou that the greatest care would be

VESSELS CROWD OAKLAND YARD

Local Firm Seeks Drydockage at the Union Iron Works.

The rush of work at the Moore & Scott shipyards has forced the firm to seek drydockage at the Union Iron Works at San Francisco. The Key Route ferryboat Verba Buena and the revenue cutter Rush are at the latter yards for repairs. The Rush was placed on the ways at the Moore & Scott yards yesterday and was found that the fore part of the keel had been badly damaged. Captain Christwell knew that the Rush had run on sunken rocks in Alaska last year, but did not know the extent of the damage. The cutter was taken off and sent to the Union Iron Works.

The cutter Bear is on the ways today. The four-masted windjammer Snow & Burgess, Captain Sorensen, left Moore & Scott's yesterday afternoon for Port Gamble to load with lumber. The General Hubbard, belonging to the Hammond Lumber Company of San Francisco, will be repaired at these yards.

Hunt, Hatch & Co., the commission merchants, now have the Jessie Matson, Captain Pohl, bring cargoes of asparagus every other day from the Sacramento river. The first trip was made today. The company is in receipt of three cars of oranges from Rodlands and three cars of potatoes from Oregon. The steam schooner Fifeled, Captain Jensen, tied up at Hogan's wharf yesterday with 465,000 feet of lumber from Bandon. Part of the cargo is for the E. K. Wood Lumber Company.

The steamer Zinfandel, Captain Pigott, was at Adams wharf yesterday. The steamer Saffron, Captain Walz, and the George W. Elder, Captain Jensen, were at Long wharf yesterday. The former vessel will deliver a full load of cement and salt for Portland and other points.

Death Comes to Man Who Saved Pres. Diaz

MINEOLA, N. Y., April 21.—The death here of Samuel F. Phillips, a wealthy retired sea captain, recalls an interesting incident in the career of President Diaz of Mexico. For many years Captain Phillips was in command of a Mallory Line ship in Mexican waters. On one occasion a man disguised as a Quaker aboard the ship in the night time. He turned out to be Porfirio Diaz, who, as an insurgent, was fleeing from the Mexican troops. Shortly after his appearance, soldiers boarded the vessel and demanded that Phillips give up Diaz. This the American captain refused to do. Diaz went ashore as soon as safe and escaped.

TOOLS AND MACHINERY ARE LOOT OF THIEVES

Two small burglaries were reported to the police this morning. They are as follows: August Olsen of 1825 Forty-eighth avenue reports that a new building at West 48th and Fitchburg streets in Melrose broken into and tools valued at $6.50 stolen. C. Salomonson of 1057 Franklin street reports the theft from a show case on the premises of razors valued at $8.

STUDENT BODY OF HIGH SCHOOL TO GIVE 'POLY' DANCE

CHARLES LEAVITT, floor manager of "Poly" dance tonight.

Much interest centers among students and their friends in the second "Poly" dance of the season at Maple Hall tonight. Over two hundred and fifty invitations have been issued and it is expected that nearly that many will assemble and join in the evening festivities. The affair is being held under the auspices of the Associated Student Body of the Oakland Manual Training and Commercial High School.

It is planned by the committee to spring a surprise on their guests in the way of novel decorations. Maple Hall will resemble a bower of ferns and huckleberry.

The committee in charge is: Miss Loretta Klenz, Charles Leavitt and Herbert Mayo. The patronesses are: Mrs. R. L. Lenz, Mrs. Ida Gross, Mrs. P. M. Fisher and Miss Mary Heaton. The senior hop and shirt waist party will be held on the evening of June 2.

LAPLANDER LANDS JOB IN ICEHOUSE

GREELEY, Col., April 21.—As a precaution against dying of heat in this climate in the summer months, Johan Alfred Delbeck, a Laplander, who came to Greeley two months ago, will work in the cold storage plant of the Greeley Ice and Supply Company.

When Delbeck heard of the wonders America has revealed with his wife and two small children through 150 miles of forest and on the crust of snow six feet deep to a seaport.

Two weeks ago an ordinary warm day caused Delbeck considerable suffering. Fearing he might succumb to the heat, friends procured employment for him with the ice company.

He said on that mid-day he never had been so hot in his life.

LESSENS TROUBLE OF THE TOLL

Secretary M. J. Smith's Tolling Makes Roads Law.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The troubles of incoming tolls are lessened by the latest ruling of the treasury department of non-dutiable articles. Every return under the law of $100 worth of personal belongings may be long been in dispute, and endless complications followed.

Secretary Smith has announced, within the past few days, that one may bring in free of duty, for personal use, cameras, fish traps, golf sticks, guns, musical instruments, trunks, toys, dolls, valises, etc. This would seem to be a liberal interpretation of the law.

On the other hand, duty must be paid on household goods, books, pictures, tableware, and similar articles unless they have been used by the owner abroad for personal use. Duty must be paid on goods as well as on articles of any nature for a definite ruling on this subject is being demanded, and the decision of the whole, much more liberal than expected.

SHRIMPED FISH TO BE ANGLER

Inland Empire Streams and Lakes Be Stocked with Trout.

SPOKANE, Idaho, April 15.—Shrimped brook trout, the latest game fish to lure sportsmen to the lakes and streams in the Inland Empire. The Spokane Fish and Game Association has just completed a project to place 2,000,000 shrimped brook trout, which was stocked with eastern trout.

A. Wieseman, secretary of the association, and Gammon Den Ulrig are at Jumptop lake, Idaho, shrimping. Several other lakes in Washington and northern Idaho are stocked this season. It is also planned to clear all the Inland Empire lakes of carp this season. 200-foot seines have been used. More than 10,000,000 trout of various sizes have been planted in these waters in the last three years.

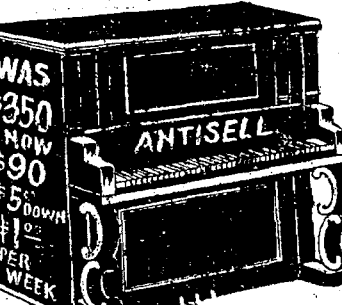

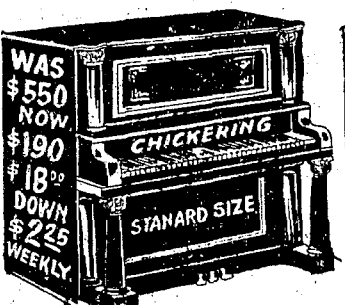

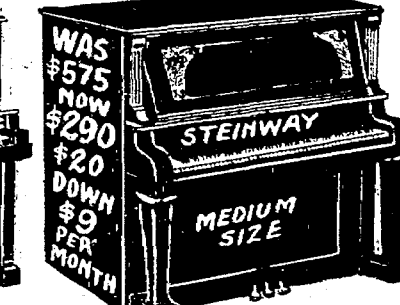

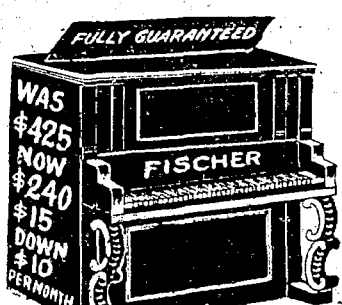

The fish are protected by state officers and members of the several sportsmen's organizations assisting the county and state officers in enforcing the regulations during the closed seasons. Visiting fishermen from various parts of America declare that as a result of this work there will always be good fishing in this district.

Eat Luscious "Sunkist" Oranges

Seedless—Fibreless—Juicy and Sweet—A Perfect Fruit

Five thousand orange farmers, raising 60 per cent of California's entire orange crop, select, each season, their perfect oranges and pack them under the name "Sunkist."

Until you have tasted a luscious "Sunkist" orange, you cannot begin to appreciate the excellence of oranges that are properly grown, rigidly inspected, carefully packed and swiftly transported. Serve "Sunkists" on your table tomorrow morning and learn the superiority of tree-ripened, seedless, solid and sound oranges over the commonplace kind. "Sunkist" oranges are so nearly all food that they are much the cheapest kind to buy.

"Sunkist" oranges are thin-skinned and are hand-picked. The "Sunkist" orange is a firm, solid fruit.

Ask your dealer for the "Sunkist" kind and make sure that each orange you get is packed in a tissue paper wrapper labeled "Sunkist." For these wrappers are valuable.

FREE—This Handsome Rogers Orange Spoon

Save 12 "Sunkist" orange (or lemon) wrappers and send them to us, with 12c to pay charges, packing, etc., and we will present you with a genuine Rogers Orange Spoon, of beautiful new design and highest quality. Begin saving wrappers today. For each additional spoon desired send 12c more in stamps. In remitting, please send one-cent stamps when the amount is less than 20c; on stamps above 20c, we prefer money order, express order or bank draft. (Don't send cash.) We will be glad to send you complete list of valuable premiums. We honor both "Sunkist" and "Don't Buy" wrappers for premiums.

MELVIN DONLIN AGAIN MISSING

Oakland Youth Drops Out of Sight; Police Are on Trail.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Melvin Donlin, a thirteen-year-old Oakland newsboy who ran away from home on April 8 and was discovered hiding on board the schooner Letitia on April 12, has again left the family fire and his relatives are extremely anxious to locate him. Following his previous disappearance young Donlin confessed that he had been shanghaied by one of the mates of the vessel, but subsequently confessed the shippe's plot and his own free will, and was returned to his home.

Last night his father appealed to the Harbor police to aid in a search for the lad, who has again dropped from sight. Policemen Ryan and Herahan, with the patrol boat and accompanied by the parent, made a careful search of the ship Cheney bound for the Alaska fisheries and lying in the stream. Every foot of the vessel was gone over and at midnight the police gave up the search confident that the boy was not on board.

LEAVES HIS HOME.

Mrs. Donlin, mother of the boy, this morning stated that she had not seen him since last Monday evening. A neighbor, however, encountered the boy on Oakland street, Wednesday evening, when he said he had been working for the United Engineering Works, over the Alameda marsh, but since then young Donlin has disappeared again, leaving no trace behind him.

TRUTH IN GOOD ADVERTISING

One of the Three Great Essentials, Says Kansas City Divine.

"Truth, reverence and beauty, are the three essentials of advertising." Advertising that is not truthful is like a structure built upon a weak foundation, sooner or later, it must crumble. An untruth always comes home to a man. There are many ways of telling the truth and the best one in advertising is to say it in the most attractive manner. There is a great difference, however, between speaking the truth and changing the environment of a fact until it changes its color. Coloring the truth is not speaking truths.

I believe the world of advertisers is growing more reverent every year. Reverence is a quality which must be observed.

Bees Cache Treasure In Garret of Tavern

Workmen Discover One Thousand Pounds of Honey Secreted Under Eaves.

LENOX, Mass., April 21.—One thousand pounds of honey, some of it more than six years old, is on exhibition at East Lee, a village near here. The entire quantity was obtained by workmen while tearing down a tavern built 150 years ago. They discovered in the garret more than fifty swarms of bees and their half ton accumulation of honey. For more than a century the tavern had been in the hands of a single family. No person now living can remember ever having entered the garret.

Blitz Paxton Sued For Mining Stocks

A Banker Declares His Dead Brother Borrowed Money On Securities.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The Bank of California brought suit today against Blitz Paxton, brother of Charles E. Paxton, who committed suicide last year, for $27,262 in mining stocks and $3000 damages. The stocks, it is alleged, were in the hands of the decedent and on the strength of them it is claimed he borrowed money. Blitz Paxton has been managing the estate.

SWARM OF BEES HATCHES HEN EGGS

PANA, Ill., April 21.—Near Radford lives George Jacobs, a farmer, who, as an experiment, put hen's eggs under a hive of bees, having them protected by a screen. The bees, he says, furnished the necessary warmth and out of the twenty eggs he got eighteen chickens. He is so well pleased that he has now placed under each of his ten hives a setting of eggs and says he expects good results.

Novel Method of Excavation.

Hansbrough Brothers, the contractors for the construction of the quay wall along the southern water front, between Myrtle and Clay streets, are now carrying out one of the most original, simple and economical plans imaginable of excavating the big trench in which the massive reinforced concrete wall is to be constructed. The hydraulic mining monitor has been ingeniously applied to the work. The high pressure head of water necessary to operate the monitor is obtained through the agency of a powerful force-pump driven by an electric motor and drawing its supply from the harbor. A centrifugal suction and force pump of greater power and capacity lifts the sand loosened by the monitor and is held in solution by the water discharged from its nozzle and the seepage of the pit, which includes the drainage from the neighboring gas works, and deposits it on the outer side of the line of the proposed wall, where it forms an embankment that protects the trench from invasion by the tides. When the wall is completed, the material thus stored on its outer side will be dredged and turned back into the trench on the land to bring the ground up to grade.

The whole plant is marvelous in its simplicity and the economy of its operation and its conception, which is entirely original with the Hansbrough Brothers, is a triumph of engineering ingenuity. It is operated with a force insignificantly small and yet the work it performs could not be done as rapidly and effectively by a pick and shovel brigade of laborers a hundred strong.

The ground is particularly favorable for this method of excavation, being simply fine beach sand and mud which melts away as soon as struck by the stream from the monitor and flows into the sump where the suction pump takes up the slush as fast as it enters and carries it over the bulkhead constructed to support the southern side of the excavation. It is a new application of the use of water under pressure for the removal of earth and, particularly, for the kind of excavation to be performed under this special contract. It will doubtless serve as an object lesson of great interest and value to engineers generally.

Hydraulic mining can be profitably carried on where the auriferous gravel deposit contains an average of only seven cents of gold per cubic yard, and to win which hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent in the construction of diversion dams and head-gates, ditches, flumes, distributing reservoirs, pipe lines, monitors and rifled tail-races, etc. The total plant employed in the quay wall excavation consists of two electric motors, a powerful force-pump, which draws its water supply through a short suction pipe dropped into the estuary; a feed pipe line and hydraulic mining monitor, and a centrifugal suction and force-pump and short discharge pipe line. The problem which is presented to the ingenious mathematician to solve may be thus formulated: If auriferous gravel containing only seven cents of gold per cubic yard can be worked profitably with a water system and hydraulic appliances that have cost hundreds of thousands of dollars to provide, what will it cost per cubic yard to remove a bed of beach sand twenty-five feet wide, forty feet deep and 2000 feet in length by the same process, with a plant that has cost only a few thousand dollars, and which is operated by an inexhaustible and unchangeable source of water supply which has cost nothing to develop?

The Southern Pacific Company is losing no time in its preparations to reconstruct the Seventh street roadbed which under the new franchise is to be operated as an electric railway. Surveyors began work on the line this morning. The steam franchise expires November 19, hence the work of reconstruction will have to be hurried up in order that there shall be no interruption of the local ferry traffic.

Relic of the Navy of a Century Ago.

The Women's Improvement Club of Vallejo has undertaken the commendable task of persuading the Federal government, if possible, to make a gift to the city of the old historical war frigate, Independence, and thus save her from the wrecker. The Independence has been moored at the Mare Island navy yard for fifty years as a receiving ship. She is the oldest ship in the navy retaining her original timbers, and, although her keel was laid in the Boston navy yard in 1812—lacking one year of a century—they are said to be still sound. But the days of her usefulness to the navy have ended and she has been doomed by the government to be sold to the junk-dealer. The government cannot expect to profit from such a disposition of the venerable craft, as she will go for a mere song if auctioned to the highest bidder. Sentiment cuts no figure in such cases either with the government or the junk-dealers who buy its condemned ships.

The Women's Improvement Club of Vallejo are actuated, however, by sentiment. They want to preserve the Independence as a relic of the old navy and plan to turn the old craft to useful account in connection with the new public park to be laid out on Vallejo's water front and make it one of the park's main attractions. The club has expressed its intention to co-operate with the Vallejo Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association in converting the receiving ship into a commercial clubhouse and receiving pavilion for the benefit of visitors to the city and its public park. The officers of the club have conferred with Commodore Osterhaus regarding the proper course of procedure to petition the government to present the old ship to Vallejo, and the granting of the petition would be a graceful concession on the part of the administration.

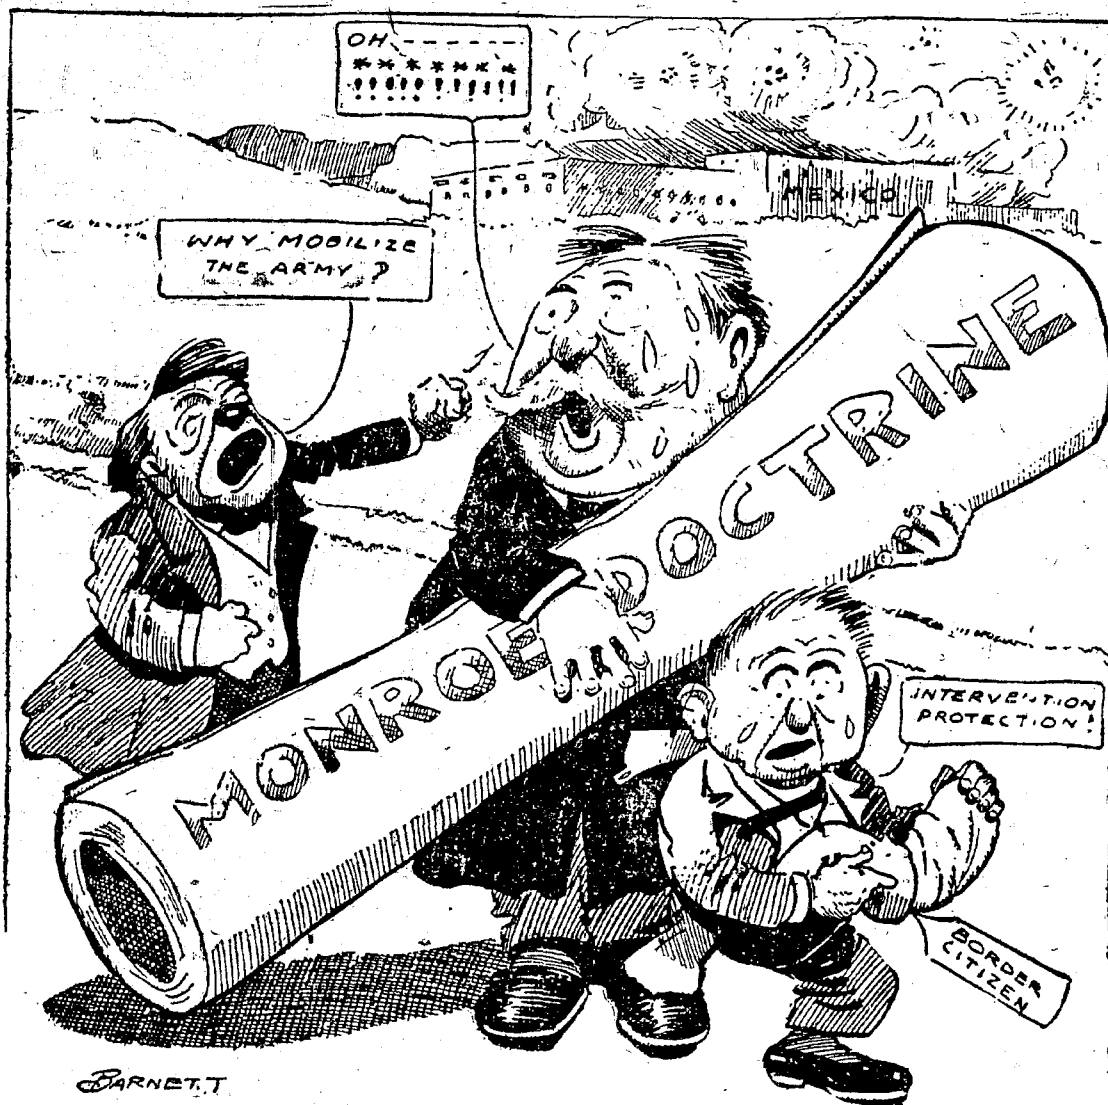

High speeding by motorcyclists is under the ban of the law at Fresno and every motorcyclist must display hereafter a tin placard with the registered number of the machine inscribed thereon. The new ordinance is expected to effectively squelch the chronic scorcher, for should he evade arrest at the time of the commission of his offense the number displayed on his high-speeding machine will betray his identity and place of residence to the police and he will not escape punishment.

Mexican Government Recriminations.

The Mexican government's reply to President Taft's remonstrance against the manner in which the war on the border is being conducted and the lives and property of the residents of American territory are being imperiled by the wild shooting of the belligerents—federals and insurgents—across the boundary line, is exactly what was to be expected. It is understood to be recriminatory on some points that are absolutely indisputable. Indirectly the Washington government is held responsible in a very large degree, through contributory negligence, for the conditions prevailing on the border which, it is intimated, could not exist were it not for the support the insurgents are receiving from the United States, which has been made the source of their supplies and recruiting grounds and the headquarters of the revolutionary junta directing the insurrection.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES

—LOS ANGELES HERALD.

Special stress is placed on the fact that a large proportion of the insurgent forces are American adventurers who have been allowed to pass and who continue to pass through the American border patrol.

That the insurgents have depended upon the United States to keep them supplied with the munitions of war has been amply proved. War munitions have been surreptitiously carried through the American lines into the northern border states of Mexico apparently without any serious effort being made to put a stop to the contraband trade. The Mexican government's suggestive answer to President Taft's remonstrance has, apparently, forced a closer patrol of the line and a more vigilant scrutiny of what passes over it than has heretofore been maintained, for it is represented that insurgents were detected yesterday in an attempt to smuggle twenty-six thousand rounds of ammunition across the border. The contraband was seized, but the smugglers escaped. In all probability the Mexican rebellion, in the border states, at least, could not be maintained if the use of American territory as a recruiting ground and a source whence military supplies can be drawn were suppressed. It is that point which weakens the government's protests against Mexico's violations of neutral territory in its efforts to suppress the rebels operating on the border.

BERNARDO O'HIGGINS

A Chilean, we suppose, would feel very sorry for a man who had never heard the glorious history of Bernardo O'Higgins, the Liberator of Chile. Still, the vast majority of Europeans are in that humiliating state, so we can keep each other in countenance.

O'Higgins was born in Peru, of which province of the Spanish empire his father was viceroy. He embraced the cause of the revolution when the Spanish-American colonies renounced their allegiance, and attached himself particularly to the Chilean cause. He was a famous fighter and when, after many reverses, liberty triumphed in Chile he was made Supreme Director of the republic.

The most remarkable exploit, however, in which he had a share is a part of the world's military history. This was the passage of the Andes effected by the army under San Martin and O'Higgins which marched from Buenos Ayres to the liberation of Chile in 1817. It was much more remarkable than Napoleon's passage of the Alps. The summit of the Uspallata Pass is 12,700 feet above sea level, which is some 5000 feet higher than the Great St. Bernard, by which Napoleon went, and over this pass went an army of 5000 men, 1600 horses and 800 mules. Wheeled transport was impossible. Each piece of artillery had to be slung on a pole between two mules, or sometimes dragged with ropes. There were chasms that could only be crossed by rope bridges. The march took three weeks, and men and animals suffered greatly from the "mountain sickness" caused by rarefied air. At the foot of the Andes they fought the battle of Chacabuco, and Chile was free.

There are many Irish names in the story of Spanish-American liberty. Besides O'Higgins (whose father, Don Ambrosio O'Higgins, the viceroy, was born in Ireland of peasant parents), there was Brown, the sailor of genius, who had a leading part in the liberation of Argentina. There was Juan McKenna, also born in Ireland, who became a distinguished soldier of Spain, joined the revolutionaries in Peru and rose to high rank. There was, on the other side, General O'Donoghue (Spanish for O'Donnell), who was defeated by the revolutionaries in Mexico and had to make terms recognizing Mexican independence. And no doubt there were others; but our knowledge does not extend to them.—London Daily News.

STAGGERING BLOW

Mayor Ellen Wilson of Hunnewell, Kan., is a disappointment. Even before beginning her duties she is hedging. She has cold feet. With her back upon the campaign and its glowing promises and a perturbed eye turned on the problems of administration, she says:

"I have not fully decided what I will try to do, because of an uncertainty as to what I can do. There is no city marshal now, but there will be if I can get one. Also the pool halls will be closed or put under such control by license and strict regulation as to make them harmless to the youth of Hunnewell. I want Hunnewell to be a cleaner city, but can only tell how much or little hope there is for betterment when I have an opportunity to observe the attitude of the members of the new council."

And we have been expecting so much! The country had awaited a Hunnewell transformed; streets so clean, you could eat a meal off them; saloons turned into ice cream parlors and pool rooms into Browning clubs; a police force with leisure; a town combed, curled, perfumed, adorned.

Mayor Ellen "doesn't know what she can do." Was it so during the campaign? She "puts it up to" some one else—in this case the council—as glibly as a New York official discussing the Asch building fire. She may soon be talking about people, whose heads are filled with vice and crime, who traduce Hunnewell by calling it a wide-open town. From that to quoting Lecky upon morals is a short and—alas!—any easy step.

This is a staggering blow. Women's regenerative force in politics has long been the hope of millions. Are the women actually going to turn out just like the men? If so, let us again take time to despair of the Republic.—New York World.

PERSONS AND THINGS

To Jacob Hope, Philadelphia's famous bird and animal expert, an odd adventure happened the other day.

Mr. Hope was strolling out Walnut street when a bird faker accosted him. The faker drew from his pocket the usual painted sparrow—a gorgeous thing of blues and golds and greens—and, evidently taking Mr. Hope for one of the millionaires of Rittenhouse Square, he said:

"I jest nabbed this bird off that there walnut tree. Can't I sell her to ye cheap? Look at her—ain't she a beauty? I never seen nothin' like her before. What kind of a bird is she, do you know?"

"Young man," said Mr. Hope, "it's true that birds of a feather flock together, then I should say that, undoubtedly, she is a jallbird."—Minneapolis Journal.

The veterans were recalling war scenes. One story did tread upon another's heels, so fast they followed, and imagination increased with each recital. Finally came the turn of Old Uncle Dell, former private in an Illinois regiment.

"We was all lined up ready to begin the Battle of the Wilderness," he said, "when old Grant come ridin' down the line to my regiment and called out: 'Is Lieutenant Dell of Illinois here?'"

"I happened to be back in the rear, superintendin' bringin' up some ammunition, and the colonel told him I would soon be back. Grant rode away an' come back a few minutes later.

"Is Lieutenant Dell here yet?" he inquired. They told him no, an' he rode away with his brow kind of clouded.

"The third time he come a-learnin' down the line, staff rattlin' along behind, and called out, 'Is Lieutenant Dell of Illinois here?'"

"Here, general," I says; and he whirled around and yelled, 'Let the battle begin!'" Everybody's Magazine.

Queen Mary is no public speaker, though a widely read woman, without being in any sense a bluestocking, and is proficient in Italian, German and French, playing the harp and piano well, and being a great knitter and the most expert needlewoman in the royal family. She is rarely without a needle in her hand when at leisure, and when she played at country houses before her accession the lady-in-waiting would bring her as a matter of course her needlework bag after dinner, and she worked while talking. She is quite accustomed to the sewing machine, and thinks so highly of knitting and crocheting that her sons have been taught to make mittens, simple lace and stockings, while she and her daughter have knitted many stockings for the royal children.—Girls' Own Paper.

DIANA OF GOTHAM

Madison Square Garden is periodically reported sold, and the end of its present picturesque and multifarious sphere of usefulness predicted for the near future. Thereafter it will be torn down to make place for business buildings. Its arcade, open to ticket speculators on stormy nights, will disappear, and the famous tower, just cause of civic pride, be added to the vanished landmarks of tomorrow. But what of Diana of the Tower—Diana of the New Yorkers?

Her functions in the New World have been far more numerous and diversified than ever they were in the Old. She has been the epreiding deity of horse and cattle and dog and cat and poultry shows, of menageries whose inmates she never encountered in the groves of Hellas and Italy, of circuses, drama and comedy, of the athletics of mortals and their sports, from sticcious to Marathons. Beneath her fluttering drapery and drawn arrow have been heard the war cries of Indians from the Wild West and of braves from the Fourteenth street Wigman, and the oratory of Mr. Bryan in the enemy's country. For twenty years she has shared the life of the city, even to telling the assembly the way the wind was blowing, except on election nights, when the prosaic searchlight man usurped her darkened place.

What are we going to do about Diana? We cannot lose her. Some building like Madison Square Garden New York needs, some People's Palace. If the present one is to go, may its successor rise as monumental, its tower aspiring heavenward with a kindred grace! Above all else, may it be surmounted by Saint Gauden's Diana!—New York Tribune.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman."

I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—Mrs. HERMAN SIEMT, Pound, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

GREAT RISKS IN MODERN INDUSTRY

Carelessness and Lack of Protective Devices Cause Accidents.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 21.—The result of many months' study of industrial accidents is embodied in the report of the New York state employers' liability commission, just submitted to the legislature here. The commission reports that the most alarming causes of accidents are as follows:

The immense risk of modern industrial operations; human fallibility; lack of protective devices; carelessness of workmen; enormous speed at which machine labor is carried on.

The commission recommends stringent supervision in all directions; a new law for tunneling and rock work with explosives; abolition of open belting and shafting in factories and substitution of electrically propelled machinery, and calls attention to the dangers of electrical work, but says the problems of the use of high voltage must be worked out. More stringent fire laws are also recommended.

FALSE TEETH IDENTIFY NEW JERSEY SUICIDE

DOVER, N. J., April 21.—A dental bridge found in a room of a Brooklyn lodging house that had been occupied by a man who committed suicide here two years ago, has just served to identify the suicide. A dentist in Stockholm, Sweden, to which the bridge was sent by the Sweden consul in New York, recognized it as a piece of work done for Berend Edward Collander, son of a wealthy cotton manufacturer of Stockholm.

HIS ECZEMA GONE AND BOILS CURED

Eczema Began When Three Weeks Old. Arms, Shoulders and Breast a Solid Scab. Boils Broke Out During Teething. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and He Was the Picture of Health.

"My son was about three weeks old when I noticed a breaking-out on his cheeks, from which a watery substance began to exude. After his arms, shoulders and breast broke out also, and in a few days became a solid scab. I became alarmed, and called our family physician who at once pronounced the disease eczema. The little fellow was under his treatment for about three months, by the end of that time he seemed no better. I became discouraged. I dropped the doctor's treatment, I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, nothing else, and when two years old he was the picture of health. His complexion was soft and beautiful, and his head a mass of silky curls. I had been afraid that he would never be well, and I feel that I owe a great debt to the Cuticura Remedies. HORSE TRIES SUICIDE.

OROVILLE, April 21.—It took seven men and a team of mules to prevent a horse belonging to Ray Eastep of this place from committing suicide in a creek. Eastep was driving the animal and, in crossing the creek at Wynn's, the horse deliberately lay down in the water and thrust its head beneath the surface. Men prospecting in the vicinity helped Eastep to hold the horse's head above the surface. The owner went to a nearby place and procured a span of mules.

BEGINS EFFORT TO BREAK WILL

G. W. Glover, Jr., Files Motion in New Hampshire Court.

CONCORD, N. H., April 21.—Attorneys of G. W. Glover Jr. of Elad, S. D., filed today in the Superior Court the motion of which they gave notice recently for leave to intervene in the action of Geo. W. Glover, secretary, against Henry M. Baker, executor of the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science denomination, and other persons. The motion says that if the residuary clause of Mrs. Eddy's will is found invalid as a violation of the law of New Hampshire and if George W. Glover Sr. and Ebenezer J. Foster Eddy, Mrs. Eddy's heirs, have lost their rights to succession by reason of certain agreements made by them in November, 1909, then George W. Glover Jr. as grandson and next of kin, is entitled to his distributive share of Mrs. Eddy's property in accordance with the New Hampshire statutes of distribution.

PIEDMONT MANOR, THE REALTY SYNDICATE'S MAGNIFICENT NEW SUBDIVISION READY FOR OPENING DAY TOMORROW

LANDING STATION AT PIEDMONT MANOR.

Splendid Improvements to Be Installed Immediately Upon Valuable Piedmont Properties to Be Sold Tomorrow at an Average of $25 a Front Foot. One of the Most Artistic Achievements of the Kind Ever Attempted in Alameda County. Buyers Certain to Make Big Profits.

After a year of careful thought and planning, and at the culmination of one of the most interesting and truthful advertising campaigns ever published in the West, The Realty Syndicate have arrived at the formal opening day for Piedmont Manor, probably the most artistically arranged subdivision ever offered to home seekers in Alameda county.

That tomorrow's sale will be a success is already proven by the number of people interested in this property, and that every lot in the tract will be sold by Sunday night is by no means unlikely.

Mr. Nat. M. Crossley, general manager of The Realty Syndicate, stated this morning that the interest aroused by the announcement of tomorrow's sale was greater than he had ever observed in the opening of subdivision property.

"I have never seen such interest taken in a project of this kind," said Mr. Crossley. "And although we anticipate a great success, we had no idea that we would be able to sell out the entire tract, as it seems that we will do now. The cause of this public interest can be traced to the fact that we are giving home seekers something that they have been looking for for years, and offering it to them at prices and on terms easily within their reach.

"The wide lots and the artistic arrangement of the property has made an irresistible appeal to every one, which, with its proximity to the Key Route and its charming environment, make a combination of attractions that no home seeker could help but observe.

"If we had held this property off the market until we completed the improvements we could have sold it at $40 or $45 per foot," continued Mr. Crossley. "Because it is sure to be exceedingly valuable within a very short time. However, we are perfectly satisfied to sell it at our present quotations of $25 and $30 per foot, including all improvements, because we realize that the more money we can make for our buyers, the greater clientele we will ultimately have; and on a matter of $500 or $600 a lot on only 72 lots, we would rather see the client make the profit than to wait six months to make it ourselves. For no big business can be done without a whole lot of satisfied customers, and nothing satisfies a buyer so much as to make a quick profit."

Mr. Crossley intimated that The Realty Syndicate were going to make Piedmont Manor the show place of all their tracts, and would develop it even more beautifully than present buyers realize. His idea is to use it as a future reference of the Syndicate's subdivision work, and judging from the contracts already let it will grow into one of the most charming neighborhoods in all of Piedmont.

There is no question but that the property is worth considerably more than is being asked for it; in fact, if the Syndicate had refused to sell a lot and had allowed no one to see the property until every street, sidewalk, curb, park and ornamental plant had been completed, or set in place, it would have sold for nearly double the quotations asked at the present time.

It has been the Syndicate's contention, however, ever since Mr. Crossley took up the management of affairs, that the greatest ultimate gain lies in allowing clients to make profits, which idea is clearly exemplified in the pricing of the frontage of Piedmont Manor.

The property was laid out by Mr. James L'Honniedieu, assisted by Oscar Prager, both of whom are landscape architects of note.

The situation was carefully studied and a practical and artistic plan was devised along entirely new lines, covering the entire property, giving proper attention to the parking features, and allowing for sufficient width of lots to avoid all crowding, and to permit the erection of the wide, rambling bungalow type of homes so prevalent in the better sections of America.

NEW SHOW AT LOCAL ORPHEUM
TO DISPLAY STARS

MRS. SIDNEY DREW, coming to the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday.

Taking a peek into the future just far enough to see what the Oakland Orpheum has to offer for its new show next Sunday one finds that the bill of fare is to be even more fascinating than usual. There will be some great names on the bill and although great names do not always indicate great merit, the prospects are that in this case the vaudeville feast will be exceedingly delightful.

The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew are to present for the first time here Mrs. Drew's greatest play, "The Still Voice," constitutes an attraction sufficient to draw the multitudes to the vaudeville temple.

A great foreign novelty will be exhibited in the person of Dick, known as the "canine penman." Dick is the only dog in the world that writes with pen and ink on paper and there will be a vast deal of speculation as to how he accomplishes the feat.

The five Satanas, gymnasts and equilibrists from Japan will give a pleasing performance.

Grace Cameron is to return for one week only. The little comic opera star scored an enormous hit last week and has been secured for seven more days, because of the marked success she achieved in Louisville.

Burr McIntosh, his play, "The Ranchman," will conclude his successful engagement next Saturday night.

This week will also terminate the engagement of Binns, Binns and Binns, vagabonds of comedy. Also Alcide Capitaine, known as the perfect woman, and Mullen and Correll, comedy acrobats of the first rank.

Candidates Thank Friends for Vote

Aspirants for Office Grateful for Support They Received.

To My Friends—While I cannot see you all personally I take this means of thanking you each for your loyal support in the campaign for nomination just closed. It is with a great deal of satisfaction that I acknowledge the support of any kind without organization of any kind. 2500 people showed me by their votes that they approved of my course as a public official.

HAROLD EVERHART.

TURNER GRATEFUL.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—As it would be impossible for me to see all my friends in person I beg permission to use your column to express to them my appreciation of their loyal help in this last election. I also extend my thanks to the public in general for its continued confidence and good will as shown at the ballot box. I appreciate the clean and courteous campaign made by my rivals for commissionship No. 3. For I am convinced that the mudslinging indulged in at my expense was without the consent or approval of a single one of them.

Very respectfully,
FREDERICK C. TURNER,
Candidate for Commission No. 3.

WILL EXPLAIN.

Black-Header Is Sent to Prison

Giana Alongi Sentenced to Serve Five Years at Fort Leavenworth.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Giana Alongi, who was charged with being a member of the black hand society, was sentenced today to five years' imprisonment in Fort Leavenworth penitentiary and ordered to pay a fine of $1000 by Judge K. M. Ladd in the United States District Court.

Swiss Factory Turns Out Arms for Mexico

BERNE, Switzerland, April 21.—The Swiss arms manufactory in Neuhausen is now turning out a big order of modern arms for the Mexican government.

A Mexican army officer left recently, accompanying the first consignment of rifles to Mexico. Several other Mexican officers have arrived in Neuhausen to watch over the filling of the remainder of the order.

Capt. Donelan Up for Hearing in Ireland

CORK, Ireland, April 21.—The hearing of the petition against the election of Captain Antonio J. C. Donelan, the Nationalist whip, who defeated William O'Brien in the East division of Cork county, was opened at the county court-house yesterday. Scores of police were on hand to avert threatened clashes between the two factions.

Timothy Healy, representing O'Brien, said the object of the petition was to touch "the Ribbon Society," the United Irish League, for "bribery, impersonation, treating, 'alcoholizing' voters, threatening opponents and wholesale intimidation and corruption."

Grand Army Veteran Dies on His Birthday

ALAMEDA, April 21.—David Irwin, a Grand Army veteran, who served throughout the Civil War, died today on his seventy-eighth birthday anniversary at the home of Mrs. Alice A. Brown, 2823 Santa Clara avenue. He was a native of Ireland. He was formerly connected with the San Francisco leather firm of Daliber & Brothers. He was a member of George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R., of San Francisco.

90,000 Want U.S. Troops Removed

Monster Petition Presented in Lower House of Congress Today.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Ninety thousand citizens of the United States petitioned Congress today to withdraw the troops from the Mexican border. It required three men to carry to the speaker's platform, when the House convened, huge bundles of petitions submitted by Victor J. Berger, the Socialist member from Wisconsin.

"What is all this?" asked Speaker Clark, in surprise.

Mr. Berger explained that the petitions had been received from residents of every State except Delaware and from every territory except Alaska. They declare that the presence of the troops is aiding in the suppression of what the petitioners believe to be a just struggle for liberty.

Master Plumbers' Convention at End

FRESNO, April 21.—The State Master Plumbers' convention came to an end today with a picnic at the San Joaquin river, attended by 800 delegates, wives and friends. The merry-makers boarded a special train for the coaches at 10 o'clock and will return at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Joy-Riding Autoist Hurlled to Death

New Jersey Man's Skull Crushed, Companion Drives Away at Terrific Speed.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 21.—An $9 horse power racing automobile swinging around a sharp corner on the main street of this city at a forty-mile clip shortly before daybreak today, catapulted Ernest Schenning out of his seat behind the driver and hurled him head first against the sharp curbstone at the edge of the street. His skull was crushed in and he was taken to the city hospital in a dying condition. Schenning's companion did not stop to help him, but whirled on down the street at a terrific speed.

Society Girls Are Appointed Detectives

SAPULPA, Ok., April 21.—Because of their coolness they had brought about the arrest of Henry Cleveland, a negro, and Mary Cleveland, his wife, who have confessed to robberies in St. Louis, Kansas City, Oklahoma City and Sapulpa, Miss Vivian Carter, Miss Mabel Burton and Miss Gertrude Black, society girls of this city, were appointed detectives by Mayor Denton today and their appointments were confirmed by the city commissioners.

Monument Unveiled Commemorating Battle

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., April 21.—On the seventy-fifth anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto, ending the struggle that freed Texas from Mexico, a monument was unveiled here today over the grave of Sam Houston, commander in the final conflict.

S.S.S. PERMANENTLY HEALS OLD SORES

If a quantity of normal blood is placed in a vessel and vigorously whipped with a bunch of twigs, a white, sticky substance is found clinging to the twigs and binding them together. This is a natural element of the circulation and is known as plasma, a fibrous constituent—and is the true healing quality of the blood. This plasma property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but becomes a source of irritation to any wound or open sore or ulcer on the flesh. Continually the blood discharges the impurities into the place and gradually the infection spreads and the sore enlarges. The nutritive corpuscles are also weakened, and the blood has not sufficient nourishing power with which to stimulate the place. External applications cannot cure an old sore, because such treatment does not affect the blood; the most that can be expected from plasters, washes, salves, etc., is a cleansing, soothing effect on the ulcer.

I was suffering greatly from a sore on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times deep, shooting pains would pass through it. I consulted physicians, but their treatment did not benefit me very much. I knew that the disease was hereditary in my case as my mother, my mother and two of her sisters had been similarly affected. After I had finished the first bottle of S.S.S., I felt some better, so continued it until I was cured.

In 1877 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel. A great sore formed, and for years no one knows what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of, but I got no relief. At last I began the use of S.S.S., and continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore.

S.S.S. heals old sores in a perfectly natural way. It goes down into the blood, and removes the impurities and morbid matters that are the means of keeping the ulcer open; then the sore is bound to heal. S.S.S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and not only does it cleanse the circulation, but it restores the healing, plasma qualities and adds in promoting every necessary quality for good health. S.S.S. builds new flesh tissue from the bottom of the ulcer to the outer skin, and makes a permanent cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

HARDSHIP AT SEA MAKES MIND BLANK

GALVESTON, April 21.—Four days of treatment and nourishment have failed to restore the memory of a shipwrecked man rescued in the middle of the gulf by the schooner Matanzas, bound from Tampico to Port Arthur. On a 15-foot raft, evidently a piece of a vessel, the unfortunate was discovered about 150 miles off the Mexican coast when the Matanzas was three days out of Port Arthur.

Almost starved and too weak to talk, the man was carefully nursed back to strength only to find that his memory is a blank as to recent years. There is no wound on his body and there is nothing to indicate his name or identity save that his clothing is that of a sailor. He speaks of his childhood days in Norway and talks about the North Sea, but he remembers nothing about himself or anything else since then. Physically his condition is improving and the physicians at Beaumont who are studying the case are unable to diagnose the trouble.

There is some talk of extending the recall movement to the umpires.—Los Angeles Times.

DEBATE ON TREATY CLOSES IN THE HOUSE

Vote of Canadian Reciprocity Is Thought to Be Near.

EXCLUSION POLICY DENOUNCED ON FLOOR

Congressman Underwood Heralds "the Era of Honest Competition."

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The House of Representatives entered today on what the leaders hope is the final stage of consideration of the Canadian reciprocity bill. Strenuous efforts are being made to force a vote before adjournment today. Chairman Underwood of the committee on ways and means is exerting all possible pressure to compel action.

It was agreed at a conference between Underwood and Representatives McCall of Massachusetts, and Dabell of Pennsylvania, that general debate would close at 3 p. m. and remarks under the five-minute rule will be in order.

CLOSES DEBATE.

"Heralding the era of honest competition," Representative Underwood closed the debate on the reciprocity agreement.

The enactment of the reciprocity bill into law, he said, would mark the end of the period "exclusion" in the economic policy of the country insofar as customs laws affect industrial conditions.

"For fifty years," he said, "the Republican party has maintained the policy of excluding, as far as it has been able, competitive products from other countries beginning with the tariff act of 1816. It was intended to develop new industries until they were strong enough to stand alone and face the competition of the world and the rivalry of our protective competitors, but the greed for gains has driven the advocates of this theory far beyond the position they maintained at its inception."

EXPORT OUTPUT.

"There is today hardly a great American industry that is not exporting its surplus products to the open markets of the world and selling them in free competition with the manufactures and crops of our foreign competitors."

"We would be unvalued masters of production and industry in every land where free competition can be obtained, if we would but strike off the shackles that bind us to the dead and unnecessary economic system maintained by the Republican party, that creates false standards and wasteful conditions at home."

Underwood contended that the nation should turn from these standards, carefully adjusting the laws to meet new conditions without serious injury to capital or labor in order to reduce the cost of living at home and be prepared to dispose of surplus products to insure stability of prices and employment to labor.

DUTIES FOR REVENUES.

"The Democratic party," he continued, "does not intend to abandon the custom houses, but favors a policy of levying income duties for revenue only as rates that will not destroy fair and honest competition in the home market. I say this bill marks an era in the economic life of the nation. Why? Not that the immediate results will be far reaching, but because it takes one step in the right direction; a step away from the exclusive protective policy; a step toward an honest competitive policy."

In reviewing recent tariff legislation Underwood said:

"Our standpat Republican friends were responsible for having the reciprocity agreement now before the Congress."

The Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, he characterized as a "gold brick that glittered without and was false metal within."

When it came to applying the tariff to Canada, he said, "the President dared not impose the maximum rates on Canadian products, a condition which led up to the Albany tariff conference with the Canadian agents and subsequent negotiations for reciprocity."

GOLD DUST FOUND IN CROPS OF DUCKS

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—Live ducks received by local commission men from the west from the Parrell, near Lynch, Neb., on a small creek that empties into the Niobrara river, have been yielding gold—not the coin, but the precious metal in an original state. This gives rise to the opinion that gold in considerable quantities exists somewhere along the Niobrara and its tributaries in Northern Nebraska.

When killed and dressed small nuggets of gold have invariably been found in the crops of the Parrell ducks. The largest of the nuggets weighed 80 cents, while there were many number that were worth from a dime up to fifteen cents.

An investigation has determined that the portion of the ranch where the ducks roamed was a gulch through which a small stream flowed, and the idea is that while swimming in this stream the birds picked up the nuggets from the shallow bottom and bars, they having been washed there from the surrounding hills. The occupants of the Parrell ranch are "prospepecting" the whole neighborhood.

STEALS HORSES TO STUDY FOR MINISTRY

MIDDLETON, Del., April 21.—Horse stealing to get money to study for the ministry is the newest thing in crime. An admission to this effect was made here by Ralph D. Anderson of Wynona City, Del., arrested last night on suspicion of being a horse thief. He was taken into custody after trying to sell a valuable horse and wagon to Robert Johnson, a farmer of Middletown, for $65. Anderson said he stole the horse from James Sudler, an undertaker of Smyrna, Del. A buggy he stole at the same time was traded to a farmer near Galena, Md., for the vehicle recovered. The young man said he is a student of the Pennsylvania State Normal School, West Chester, Pa., where he is preparing for the ministry.

USERS PRAISE DYSPEPSIA CURE; TESTIMONIALS CONSTANTLY RECEIVED

Oakland Druggist Provides Cure for Stomach Troubles; Giving Great Satisfaction to All Who Use it.

Theodore Roosevelt is an example of what a healthy person should be and can accomplish in life, and it's a foregone conclusion that he doesn't have to diet to keep his digestive organs in order. But there was a time when he was a delicate youth and he achieved his present perfect health and great success in life only by following the rigorous pathway of physical and mental development which he had mapped out for himself.

There are many delicate men and women in the world, but few indeed among them are willing to make the necessary sacrifices to obtain perfect health, especially in the selection of their food. As a result they become dyspeptics. Constant sufferers, to whom the tasks of daily life are a torture.

To such as these the hope of relief and positive cure guaranteed by Osgood's Dyspepsia Remedy, the new medicine for stomach troubles placed on the market by Mr. Osgood and sold at his stores at Seventh and Broadway and Twelfth and Washington, comes like a rescue to a drowning person.

It is not necessary for persons taking this medicine to diet, for the harmless remedies used in its composition neutralize and harmonize the effects of food taken into the stomach so that one may eat what one chooses without fear of any uncomfortable after effects. If one takes the precaution to take Osgood's Dyspepsia Cure before and after eating, according to directions.

During the short time it has been on the market hundreds of people have been relieved and cured according to the length of time they have suffered from this disease, and the amount of this medicine they have taken, so Mr. Osgood does not risk anything when he guarantees to return the price, one dollar per bottle, if the purchaser is not satisfied.

500 MILES OF CARPET
IN MILE-LONG TRAIN

CHICAGO, April 21. — A solid train of sixty cars, containing 15,000 rolls of carpet left Chicago via the Chicago and Northwestern railway yesterday morning for Omaha, en route from New York to San Francisco. The special train is over a mile in length. There are 500 miles of carpet in the shipment. This represents carpet enough to lay a width the entire length of the line of the Chicago and Northwestern railway from Chicago to Omaha, and is said to be the largest solid trainload of freight ever consigned across the continent.

INTEREST CENTERS ON HENRY BABES

Disposition of Children Must Soon Be Made by the Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21. — With attorney James W. Cochrane and S. Foster Kelley, alleged affinity of Mrs. Ivy May Henry behind the bars for contempt of court, interest centers principally upon the disposition of the children, Albert, Jr. and Anita, concerning whose possession the maze of litigation which now confronts the parties has resulted. Today attorneys Albert, Jr. and Anita, were notified to appear in the Supreme Court next Wednesday to answer an appeal for a writ of habeas corpus in connection with the original petition for guardianship of the children. Nearly three weeks ago Attorney Metson filed the petition for guardianship in Judge Mogan's court on behalf of the father, who had been granted the custody of the little ones by the Seattle court.

INVESTIGATION FOLLOWS.

On this showing Miss Pearl Wyckoff was directed to bring in the children and the proceedings in this matter were completely lost sight of in the sensational contempt investigation which followed. Immediately upon their disposition and before the court could consider the matter of awarding the children, who are under his jurisdiction in the detention home, the appeal was made to the Supreme Court. It is expected that this matter will be determined on Wednesday, after which Judge Mogan will act and the theater of court procedure will then be transferred to Judge Sherrill, where Mrs. Henry and Kelley are accused of interfering with a habeas corpus proceeding. Meantime the two Henry children are not enjoying life at the detention home, the only bright spot being the mother's daily visit of one hour.

COTTON MILLS WOMEN PROTEST AGAINST LAW

A meeting of the employees of the California Cotton Mills Company was held yesterday afternoon at the works in East Oakland at which Deputy Labor Commissioner Madelon explained the details and principles of the new eight-hour law for women. When the point relative to Saturday afternoon work was brought up and the employees learned that they were to be deprived of the privilege of working a little extra time during the five other days of the week so as to allow them a half-holiday Saturday afternoon, the announcement was greeted with expressions of resentment.

When the new law was alluded to by the speaker as one of protection to women, he was interrupted by calls from the crowd, one woman shouting, "Protection you call it, a crucifixion." Another woman who was a little more calm in expressing her feelings said, "This new law will not only reduce our wages, but it also gives us more unsatisfactory hours, for, in future we will be forced to work the full eight hours on Saturday in order to make up the forty-eight hours per week, while we can now attend to our household affairs and do shopping on our Saturday afternoon holiday and have Sunday to ourselves. It is time we women had votes and put a stop to men legislating in matters that pertain to us and us only."

The employees of the California Cotton Mills have enjoyed Saturday afternoon's holiday for years, but owing to the wording of the new law, this privilege will be denied them. Many of the operators becoming more strenuous in their efforts to express their disapproval of the eight-hour law as framed, it was found necessary to hurriedly dismiss the women. However, the sentiment against the new order of work was clearly demonstrated. At a later meeting of the operators it was decided to raise funds to test the validity of the new law. The help objected strenuously to working Saturday afternoon, preferring rather to work longer on the other 5 days of the week. The new schedule necessary by the new law will probably be put into effect at the California Cotton Mills within the next few days.

DESCRIBES COLLECTOR AS "50 FEET WIDE"

Describing County Tax Collector James B. Barber as being "50 feet wide and 100 feet deep," a deed of trust that he executed to Tony Ambrose of the property of John Isola is now asked by the latter in a complaint filed yesterday with the county clerk to be set aside, he further claiming that the sale, which was for delinquent taxes, was illegal. Through an error the stenographer left out a paragraph in the deed in which he attached the description of the property to the tax collector's person in the instrument with the result that the way has been paved for Isola to regain his property.

PAY SECOND NIGHT VISIT TO CAFE

San Francisco Restaurant Is Robbed Again by the Same Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21. — For the second time within a month highwaymen, attired as on a previous occasion, held up the restaurant or cafe Lindquist, 9 Jackson street, at 4:30 this morning. Lindquist had just waited on a customer and was standing in front of the range when the pair entered. They had blue handkerchiefs over their faces and were attired in dark clothes with slouch hats. Both carried revolvers, and forcing Lindquist to throw up his hands, one of them kept him covered, while the other watching the lone patron carefully, searched the cash register. After obtaining $46.85, a search of the restaurant keeper's pockets was made and another dollar taken.

CUSTOMER IGNORED.

A movement was then made toward the customer, whose name was not learned, but one of the robbers said: "We don't want a workingman's money," and with that both backed from the place. Lindquist called for help and Corporal McCormack with Policemen Casey and Douglas, searched the neighborhood, but without result. On March 3 a similar holdup occurred at about the same hour when the proprietor was alone in the place.

"I had been given up to die by three of our best doctors,"

I could not stand it to be on my feet and I was so swelled in the abdomen I could hardly breathe.

But thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nerve I am able to be about the streets, a walking advertisement of the curative qualities of your remedies, although I am 70 years old."

JOHN R. COCHRAN,
Lewistown, Ill.

Better than any statement we could make regarding the value of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy are these words of Mr. Cochran. He speaks from experience, the highest possible source of knowledge. If you have any of the signs of a weak heart, such as pain in the left shoulder or arm, fainting and hungry spells, shortness of breath, smothering spells, fluttering or palpitation of the heart, you need

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy which for over twenty years has been recognized as the best preparation of its kind to be had.

NAVY BLUE SUITS

—Women all over the world are asking for navy blue suits.

—Manufacturers are having a hard time to supply the demand, and some stores have scarcely any navy blue suits at all.

—The duty of this store is to be on the alert where Fashion is concerned, and weeks ago—when the very first hint was floating around that navy blue was to be the color, and likely to be scarce—our wide-awake manager got busy, and now our racks are loaded with navy blue suits.

—And our values are even better than many stores would offer if conditions were the reverse of what they are—plentiful instead of scarce.

HOOK WORM CURE WORKED TOO WELL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—A new cure was discovered in this city today for hook worm. Edward C. Green of the Glendale House, was the unhappy victim of the scourge. He entered the Central Emergency Hospital at 3 a. m., breathless and excited. "I've got the hook worm something awful," he wailed. Steward James O'Dea had seen similar cases before. "Jump up on the table," he ordered, and the treatment was immediately applied. Strong, steaming ammonia on a swab of cotton held tantalizingly near Green's nasal organ had the desired effect and he was on his feet in an instant. "I'm cured, I'm cured," he cried, and he didn't stop to say good-by.

CRIPPLED STEAMER LIMPS INTO HARBOR

Remarkable Series of Mishaps Delay Whaling Voyage of Brown.

TERRIFIC GALE IS CAUSE OF TROUBLE

Bunker Coal Shifts, the Ship Almost Turns Turtle and Drifts Helplessly.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 21.—The little whaling steamer Brown has arrived here with a tale of a remarkable series of mishaps. The trouble started during a terrific gale when the Brown was 45 miles off the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Island. The rolling of the steamer caused the bunker coal to shift and for a time it looked as if she would turn turtle. While the helmsman was standing waist deep in water the crew shifted the coal back and the Brown righted herself. Then the high pressure cylinder head blew out and the Brown was at the mercy of the gale. She was drifting rapidly toward the rocks when her anchor, which had been cast and was dragging, caught on a ledge and held fast. In the meantime Chief Engineer Edwinton went into the engine room, which was filled with hot steam, and shut off the steam. He was badly scalded. The carpenter made a wooden head and later this was replaced with one cut out of a steel door. With these temporary repairs the Brown was able to limp into port.

Ailments of Men Happily Overcome SUCCESSFULLY TRIED BY MANY.

Undoubtedly the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who, through dissipation of their natural strength, find themselves in their "second childhood" long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments. It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring to nervous exhaustion, weak vitality, melancholia and the functions. First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound, take the mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cadomene). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, followed by a drink of water. By mixing it at home no man need be the wisest as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided. Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment, even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who wanted restoration to full bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.

NORMAL SCHOOL TO OPEN PLAYGROUND

Elaborate Program, Including Folk Dances by Pupils, to Be Given.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The San Francisco State Normal School will open its new playground attached to the school on Friday, April 28, at 2 o'clock. The opening will be under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Club, of which the committee on arrangements is Mrs. Alexander S. Gardner, Mrs. Mary Ross, Mrs. R. Otto and Mrs. J. W. Dowdall. The program for the occasion will be under the direction of the playground directors, Miss May V. Morgan and Irving Brainerd, with the music given by Miss Eva A. Levy. This program will be carried out at the playground itself, Hermann and Buchanan streets, and will be as follows:

- March—"Our United Emblem."
- Opening Chorus—"A May Morning."
- Greeting—"Mrs. Alexander S. Gardner, President Parent-Teacher Club."
- Welcome—"Miss May Morgan Chorus, 'New Hall Columbia'."
- Playground School—"Elementary School Chorus, 'New Hall Columbia'."
- Ball, volley ball, captain ball, hand ball, field ball, general games, races.
- Eva A. Levy, pianist; Marjorie Cutting and James Miller and Ellery Stone.

- (f) Eighth Grade—Highland Schottische.
- (g) Ninth Grade—German Lott Ist Tod.
- (h) Tenth Grade—Finnish Reel.
- (i) Eleventh Grade—Swedish Blecking.
- (j) Twelfth Grade—Swedish Ace of Diamonds.
- Boys Farewell Song—"Aloha, Oa."
- School Chorus—"Yankee Doodle."

'NEVER AGAIN!' SAYS F. J. GORDON

"Everyone Says That He Voted for Me, But Count Doesn't Show It."

Editor TRIBUNE: Will you kindly use about one inch of space in one of the columns of your paper to thank my friends for their support of my candidacy in the primary election last Tuesday. I would ask more space in which to express my appreciation provided the number that voted for me would justify the demand, but as it is, I am sure that, try as I may, since the polls closed I cannot find a single individual, friend or foe, who did not vote for me; therefore I claim that something is not as it should be, either I did not get a square deal or I am not a politician—I think it must be the latter. So, with the permission of my friends, I will cut out politics for under the new charter I cannot do otherwise, and continue to collect bad bills, to secure divorces for women who wish to get married again, or in fact, any old thing in my line of business as a lawyer, but no more politics, sincerely yours, FRANK J. GORDON.

MOB HANGS NEGRO ON STAGE OF OPERA HOUSE

LIVERMORE, Ky., April 21.—Will Potter, a negro, was the central figure in a tragedy here when 60 citizens dragged him upon the stage and after hanging him, riddled his body with bullets. Potter had shot and killed Frank Mitchell, 25 years old, in a quarrel. Potter was captured by Marshal Stabler and placed in the city jail. Hearing the mob approaching the marshal swore in half a dozen deputies and rushed the prisoner to the opera house. A messenger was sent for the sheriff, but before he arrived the mob had captured the negro.

TRAIN PEDDLER RELEASED. VALLEJO, April 21.—At the request of District Attorney Rainer, Judge Buckles in the Superior Court dismissed the charge of grand larceny against Alfred Eahn, 55-year-old train peddler of San Francisco, who has worked for a quarter of a century on the run between Oakland and Sacramento. He was arrested in July last charged with robbing a passenger of $45.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

AMATEURS REHEARSE FOR 'MANEUVERS OF JANE'

Talented amateur performers will take part in "The Maneuvers of Jane," which will be presented by a company of boys and girls of the Dramatic Society of the Oakland High School, April 29, in Ebell Hall, Fifteenth and Harrison streets. Elaborate preparations are being made for the production, which is being coached by Prof. Charles Von Neumayer of the University of California, who is sparing no effort in perfecting the details of the comedy.

The play is the talk of the high school and the event promises to be a social and financial success. Rehearsals are in progress and the students are taking much interest in the work.

There is a demand for tickets.

MOORE TELLS CHICAGO OF PLANS FOR FAIR

CHICAGO, April 21.—"The Columbia Exposition, held in 1893, set standards for an international fair that still endure throughout the world," said C. C. Moore, president of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915, who was in the city yesterday gathering data on Chicago's world's fair.

Outlining a plan for the Panama exposition, Moore said: "We will have the Midway, undoubtedly, but it will be under another name. There is a strong sentiment for Chicago in San Francisco. Chicago is thousands of miles east of us, but we look on it as a western city; distinct from New York."

WILL VACCINATE 15,000. SEATTLE, Wash., April 21.—Acting under orders from Washington, the local officers of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service announced that all persons taking passage on steamers bound for Alaska must submit to vaccination before they will be permitted to embark. Steamship men say that at least 15,000 travelers will be affected by the vaccination order.

PHELAN RANCH SOLD.

CHICO, April 21.—The sale of the James D. Phelan ranch, comprising 18,000 acres of rich land, west of here, to Chicago capitalists for colonization purposes, is reported. The report has not been confirmed, but it comes from an apparently authentic source.

YOUTHFUL COLONEL RECEIVES PRAISE

CLARENCE SHUTE, colonel of the Boys' Drill Corps of the Lincoln School.

Clarence Shute, one of the students in the high eighth grade of the Lincoln Grammar school of this city and colonel of the school corps, has been complimented by Assistant Superintendent of Schools E. Morris Cox, upon the able manner in which he conducted the patriotic exercises recently held in front of the school building, Tenth and Alameda streets. Shute is winning a reputation among the boys and girls of that institution for his skill in training the young soldiers in military tactics. He has trained the captains of the different corps in the school and marching has been made an interesting part of the school work.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS TO PROBE NAVAL SHORTAGE

VALLEJO, April 21.—Rear Admiral Hugo Osterhaus, commandant at Mare Island navy yard has received orders from the navy department to appoint a board of naval officers to make a more thorough investigation of the shortage in the paymaster's department aboard the receiving ship Independence. Those named on the board are Commander Hugh Rodman, Lieutenant Allen B. Read, Pay Director Edward Bonaffant and Captain J. M. Salladay. This board will convene at Mare Island next Monday morning. The investigation will be conducted in secret.

OAKLAND SENIORS WILL DANCE TONIGHT

Under the management of Henry Oilphant, president of the low senior class of the Oakland High School, the fifteenth semi-annual low senior dance will be held in the large high school gymnasium at 8:30 this evening.

S. P. PLANS ELECTRIC LINE FOR SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, April 21.—The first big construction plan for local electric railroads under Southern Pacific ownership will be a loop line of fifteen miles, connecting Alum Rock Park, Berryessa and the city.

This was announced by F. E. Chapin, general manager of the local lines, and was given out privately several days ago by Paul Shoup, who is in charge of the Southern Pacific's electric lines.

The line will be double tracked and standard gauged, and will, it is certain, go into the park via the present narrow gauge route via the mouth of the canyon.

From Alum Rock back to the city it will go further northward tapping the rich Berryessa orchard region, and will be in a position to be a direct competitor in local service over five or ten miles of the route, which the United Properties must take to enter this city from the Oakland side of the bay. The cost of the proposed new route is estimated at between $500,000 and $600,000.

Cottolene

A Rational National Shortening

The woods are full of imitations of Cottolene—because Cottolene has made a pronounced success as "the perfect shortening." These imitations are of inferior quality, are packed in tins with ordinary removable covers, and depend largely upon substitution methods for their sale.

When you ask for Cottolene be sure you get Cottolene. There's only one Cottolene—packed in patent air-tight tin pails, with our trade-mark on the face of the pail.

It pays to pay a little more for Cottolene because of its superior quality and the fact that, being richer, it will go one-third farther than lard or any of its imitations. Its use means economy in the end.

"Shortens your food—Lengthens your life"

MRS. CHARLES HARVEY BENTLY of San Francisco, formerly attractive Florence Hush of Fruitvale, has sent out cards for the afternoon of Friday, April 28, when she will entertain a large number of guests from all the bay cities.

Mrs. Bently has a wide circle of friends on this side of the bay, many of whom will cross over for the affair. A pretty card party today was that given by Mrs. Frank J. White at her handsome home on Fairmount avenue, when she entertained her friends at the five hundred tables. The rooms were effectively decked in pink roses and more than a score of friends enjoyed the afternoon.

FANCY DRESS BALL.

The Dernier Cri ball came off last night and was a brilliant success, the costumes of the guests ranging in variety from the Yama Yama girls to the regulation evening gown, the whole making a picture of much color and beauty. The local smart set attended in full force among the masses that were especially attractive were those of Mrs. J. Pym Neville, Mrs. Philip E. Bowles, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. Edward Engs, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Harry Knowles, Mrs. J. H. Williamson, Mrs. James K. Moffitt, Jr., Mrs. George McNear, Miss Amy Bowles, Miss Florence Brown, Miss Clarisse Lohse and Miss Natalie Fore.

Miss Amy Bowles will be hostess this evening at a large dance at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Claremont. Seventy buds and belles from Oakland and San Francisco are to participate in the festivity. Miss Bowles will be assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Bowles, and aunt, Miss Bennett.

MATINEE PARTIES.

Among those who took boxes at the Oakland social benefit at Ye Liberty today were Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mrs. W. G. Henshaw and Mrs. Harry W. Bishop. Prominent society women arranged for matinee parties, among them being Mrs. C. C. Clay, Mrs. Lucie May Hayes, Mrs. J. R. Farrell, Miss Ruth Tisdale, Mrs. L. N. Chapman, Mrs. C. A. Hooper, Mrs. Giles Easton, Mrs. Murray Johnson and Miss Sarah J. Horton.

WHIST CLUB.

The Thursday Evening Whist Tournament Club held a session last night at Lincoln Hall, at which fifty members were present. Twelve tables were in use during the evening. The playing was even enough to be interesting, the first prize being carried off by W. E. Rachke, the second by W. Olsen, the third by George H. Nichols. The fourth and fifth awards went to F. H. Rowland and Edna Camp. The monthly tournament given by the club is scheduled for next Thursday.

LARGE BRIDGE PARTY.

One of the largest functions of the month will be that given by Mrs. Edward Marion Walsh next week, when her handsome Linda Vista home will be the setting for a bridge party, the guests including more than 100 guests of the bay region.

GARDEN PARTY.

The Eta Chapter of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority holds its garden party on next Wednesday afternoon and promises to be a very picturesque affair. The garden and porch of the beautiful sorority house in Channing way, Berkeley, will be the setting for the reception.

GIVES LUNCHEON.

Miss Lucile Addison of Berkeley gave a luncheon yesterday when she entertained a dozen friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Addison. The guests of honor were Miss Peggy Powell of Marysville, whose marriage will be solemnized in June, and Miss Alice Hicks, who will leave shortly for Europe.

MRS. C. K. BROWN, who will assist in receiving the guests next Wednesday evening.

LUNCHEON TODAY.

Miss Madeline Clay entertained twenty of the younger set at luncheon this afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Albright, who will not receive any more complimentary affairs before her marriage, which will take place next week.

CLUB DANCE.

Mrs. Charles K. Brown is chairman of the arrangements committee of the Duodecimo Club, which is planning to give a large dance on next Wednesday evening, for which 150 invitations have been issued. The affair will be held in Castle Hall.

ALUMNAE LUNCHEON.

The Alumnae Association of the San Francisco girls' high school will hold its annual luncheon at the St. Francis Hotel, Saturday, April 29, at 12:30. Graduates wishing to join the association and attend the luncheon may communicate with Miss Alice Corwin, 1932 Broadway, San Francisco. Many of the alumnae are at present living on this side of the bay.

AT COUNTRY CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan have come to this side of the bay to live, and are to spend the summer months at the Claremont Country Club. They formerly lived in San Francisco, where Mrs. Morgan has many friends among the smart set.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. H. J. McAvoy announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Berenice, to C. A. Johnson recently at a game of hearts. The engagement was announced by the hostess when she presented to her thirty guests bouquets of white carnations from which were suspended the dainty cards bearing the names of the pair.

Miss McAvoy is the daughter of the late Henry J. McAvoy of this city and well known among the younger set. Johnson is the son of S. A. Johnson, formerly of Shreve & Co. of San Francisco and a prominent young business man of Seattle. The wedding will be an event of the early fall.

The invited guests were: Mrs. James E. Lane Miss Berenice Randall, Miss Etta McCarthy, Miss May Torney, Miss Ruth Torney, Miss Helen Flanagan, Miss Josephine Ench, Miss Pauline Ench, Miss Josephine Ench, Miss Edith O'Rourke, Miss Irene O'Rourke, Miss Adele Dabovich, Miss Mary Torney, Miss Vera Dabovich, Miss Verda Torney, Miss Eleanor Casovia, Miss Anita Martens, Miss Rita Schunck, Miss Helena Schunck, Miss Cecelia McLaughlin, Miss Adelaide Wildeman, Miss Edith Clarken, Miss Bessie Maher, Miss Irene Maher, Miss Irene Bourke, Miss Lillian Symmes, Miss Mabel O'Brien, Miss Belinda O'Brien, Miss Kathleen O'Brien, Gladys Clane, Miss Evelyn McCallister, Miss Mary Smith, Miss Irene Cattani.

LARGE RECEPTION LAST NIGHT.

The large reception given by Mrs. C. L. Goddard last night was a handsomely appointed affair attended by nearly 250 guests. Mrs. Warren McKibben, Mrs. Goddard's sister, was the honored guest, together with Mrs. Herbert McKibben. The Berkeley home of the hostess was decorated in quantities of cut flowers, pink and white being the color scheme used throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Goddard was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. H. McKibben, Mrs. P. C. Deinger, Mrs. J. C. Marion, Mrs. Benjamin Banks, Mrs. A. D. Wilder, Miss Maude Wilson, Miss Von Loben Seis, Miss Merrill, Miss Lella McKibben and Miss Harris.

ENTERTAINS COLONIAL DAMES.

Mrs. A. D. Cross asked the Colonial Dames to be her guests today when she entertained at a tea at her home on Alice street. A large number of prominent women from both sides of the bay attended.

SUFFRAGE LECTURE.

Mrs. William Henshaw's home was the setting yesterday for an interesting lecture on suffrage given by Mrs. Minnie Sabin Cooper of San Francisco. The lecture was the first of a series to be given at "Rose Crest."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Charles Hathaway Gorrell to Miss Agnes Duncan of Portland, who is at present visiting friends in this city. Gorrell comes of one of the oldest and most prominent families in this city and is a graduate from the department of civil engineering in the University of California.

He is at present in the northwest, where he has extensive business interests. The wedding of the couple will be an event of the summer. Miss Duncan was the honored guest

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

PASTOR CONFESSES HAVING THREE WIVES

Only One Was "True-Love" Spouse; Minister Held for Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Kurtz Carlson, who says his real name is Kurtz Mueller, and that he is a Lutheran minister, pleaded guilty yesterday in the East Chicago avenue court of having three wives and was held to the grand jury. The women he confesses to have married and never divorced, with his own reasons, are as follows: Wife No. 1—Mrs. Kate Mager Mueller of Sutton, Neb. Married her because the deacons of the church told him that it was not good for a young man in charge of a parish to be unmarried. Lived with her four years. She is the mother of three of his children. Wife No. 2—Mrs. Annie Deblock Mueller. Married her in Detroit about ten months after he had separated from his first wife. She lived with him two months and then deserted him; is the mother of one child. Wife No. 3—Mrs. Amelia Pehl Carlson Mueller, his "true-love" marriage. They were married in Chicago eighteen months ago.

Mrs. Roche to Wed

AKRON, O., April 21.—The engagement of Mrs. Burke Roche, daughter of the late Frank Work, and fourth cousin of B. C. Work, eldest son of the Work family in Akron, to Robert Seton Bessford, brother of Lord Decies, who married Miss Marjorie Gould, is announced. Mrs. Burke Roche and Bessford have been in each other's company a great deal since the arrival of Bessford from England to act as best man at his brother's wedding. Mrs. Burke Roche has been married three times. She was divorced from her last husband, Aurel Batony, after her father had returned from a forty-day hunting coachman. Frank Work, from whose estate Mrs. Burke Roche inherited $1,000,000, was one of the most famous horsemen in the world.

Elopes With Mechanic

BALTIMORE, April 21.—Miss Margaret D. Hambleton, daughter of Mrs. Frank S. Hambleton, whose late husband was one of the leading financiers of the city, and Owen Frank Monahan, expert mason, who was married yesterday, Miss Hambleton is 20 and Monahan is 21. The couple started immediately on an automobile trip of a week or ten days through the south, commissioning a friend to tell the butler at the bride's home, who was in turn instructed to inform Mrs. Hambleton, who is out of the city.

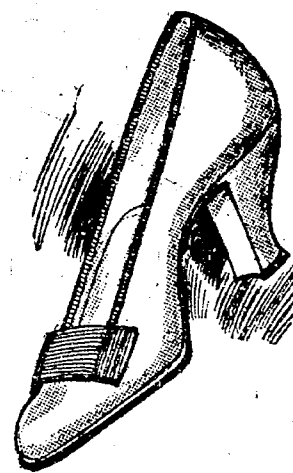

Mrs. Hambleton suspected that her daughter was in love with Monahan and strongly objected to the match.

Break Woman's Will

SANTA CRUZ, April 21.—A jury verdict was rendered in favor of the contestants of the will of Mrs. Jeannette Everts, who left an estate valued at more than $75,000. The jury declared that Mrs. Everts was mentally unsound when, three days before her death, she executed a will bequeathing all her property to her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Sarah Chapman of

Mourn His Passing

TACOMA, Wash., April 21.—When retiring Mayor Fawcett, recalled Tuesday at Tacoma, turned to leave his office he was met by fifty women, wives of laboring men employed in manufacturing plants and railroad shops. Then ensued the most dramatic parting of an executive on record. Humily clad, but neat and wholesome looking, the women, all suffragettes, offered their condolences. Fawcett was always known as the friend of the poor, owing to his custom of giving them a turkey dinner every Christmas for twenty years past. The women's speaker uttered a few

Threw Money Away

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—While traveling to this city Mrs. Frances Hold of Danbury, Conn., inadvertently threw a pair of hose out of the window of a Santa Fe coach a few miles west of Albuquerque. Soon afterward she discovered that she had left a roll of $40 in currency in the toe of one of the stockings, and at once appealed to Conductor M. Thompson for help to recover it. At the next station Thompson wired back to the agent at Albuquerque to make a search, which was done and the stockings and money were found.

ELECTION FIGHT IN BERKELEY WAXES TORRID

Wilson Works Hard to Insure Council That Will Support Him.

FOUR OFFICIALS WILL BE ELECTED TOMORROW

Candidate Denies His Enmity
to Mayor-Elect Administration.

BERKELEY, April 21.—J. Stitt Wilson is making a strong effort to secure the election of friendly councilmen at tomorrow's contest at the polls, and the Socialist candidates are furnishing the principal excitement in the campaign preceding the second election.

Wilson and others on his ticket have been holding meetings in all parts of the city, the last of which is to take place in the high school auditorium tonight.

Most of the Good Government candidates for councilmen and school director have been addressing these rallies, besides holding residence meetings.

FIGHT IS HOT.

Two councilmen and two members of the board of education are to be elected tomorrow. The fight for the councilmanic positions is decidedly the hottest. R. A. Berry, incumbent, is making a strong campaign.

The candidates are:
For councilmen—R. A. Berry (incumbent), F. F. Conner, E. Q. Turner and John A. Wilson (Socialist).
For school director—Mrs. Elinor Carlisle (incumbent), Mrs. J. B. Frame, Elmer B. Nichols, Herman L. Stern (Socialist).

CONNER IN DENIAL.

At Wednesday evening's meeting of the Socialists at Hillside Club, Mayor-elect Wilson asked Conner: "Do you endorse the declaration of the Good Government Advocates that you, if elected, and others on the council would pack that body against me?"

Conner replied that the threat was published without his authority, and said that, if elected, he would support the mayor in his administration.

The following precinct captains have been appointed by the Good Government forces:
Precinct No. 1, Nell C. Whyte; No. 2, George Hoyt; No. 3, C. W. Peck; No. 4, Harry Conway; No. 5, John Welch; No. 6, Charles Braden; No. 7, H. D. Irwin; No. 8, H. J. Irwin; No. 9, R. T. Hughes; No. 10, J. T. Irwin; No. 11, F. E. Conner; No. 12, S. S. McNeill; No. 13, W. C. Plaid and Fred Bogle; No. 14, Prof. H. Noble; No. 15, C. L. Booth; No. 16, Arthur Arlett; No. 17, L. Booth; No. 18, J. P. Barber; No. 19, L. H. Lewis; No. 20, J. W. Flynn; No. 21, Roy Dempster; No. 22, M. R. Dempster.

HOLY COMMUNION AT NEWMAN CLUB

Alumni and Active Members to Receive Rites on Low
Sunday.

BERKELEY, April 21.—In accordance with their annual custom, the alumni and active members of the Newman Club of the University of California will receive holy communion at the 8 o'clock mass in Newman Hall, 2630 Ridge road, on Low Sunday, April 23. Rev. Clarence E. Woodman, C. S. P., of New York, will preside on the occasion.

Breakfast will be served after mass. Immediately after breakfast the alumni and active members will hold their separate meetings, when officers will be chosen for the ensuing year.

The first mass will be celebrated at 7:30, and owing to the fact that the second mass will be given at 8, there will be no service in Newman Hall at 10:30. The customary benediction with a musical program will be given at 5 o'clock p. m.

WANT SALT WATER BATHS IN ALAMEDA

Plan Proposed for Municipal Ownership of Hot Salt Water Reservoir.

ALAMEDA, April 21.—Endorsing and commending the scheme for the establishment of municipal hot salt water baths in conjunction with the municipal light plant, to be situated at the south end of Park street, and the discussion of the project was the principal business taken up by the members of the Alameda Improvement Club at the regular weekly meeting held last night.

A committee was appointed to thoroughly investigate the project and report at the next meeting. Many addresses on the advantages to be obtained from a proposition of this kind were made.

Considerable discussion was held on the proposition of installing electroliters throughout the city. The general opinion was that the city would stand the expense of installing the lights. A committee was appointed to look into the matter and report.

The committee on the Washington Park Boys' Band reported that eighteen boys had signed up and that the first rehearsal of the organization would be held tomorrow night.

A reception and smoker to Mayor W. H. Noy and the city council was postponed until next Thursday, April 27.

The committee on the Webster street bridge reported that at its request Mayor Noy took up with the city council the matter and that he had appointed a committee to investigate the matter and hurry the work along. It was found that delay was due to the non-arrival of material from the east.

MISSIONARIES TO BE BETTER PAID

Presbyterian Board Receives
$2,250,000 Share of Banker's Estate.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Presbyterian Board of Home Missions has just received the $2,250,000 share of the estate of the late John S. Kennedy, the New York banker and has made plans to use at once the money for the present building, of which it will form a part, and stained glass windows will be put in.

Rev. S. C. Patterson, pastor of the church, is ex-officio a member of the committee and Professor Charles Gilman Hyde is the chairman. The other members are Fred W. Dorn, Geo. H. DeKay, George P. Gow, John McCarthy, Rev. Dr. Robinson, Walter T. Martin, Mrs. Henry G. Macaulay and Mrs. Harry Fowden.

The resident membership of the church is more than 300 and the Sunday school has an attendance of more than 200. The present auditorium seats but 350.

AGED RESIDENT
DIES SUDDENLY

Robert G. Collins Found Lifeless on Couch in Alameda Home.

ALAMEDA, April 21.—Robert G. Collins, a pioneer resident of this city, aged 70 years old, was found dead on a couch in his home at 1801 Lincoln avenue last night, ten minutes after his return to his home from a three-day visit to the country.

Collins had not complained of illness and told the members of his family that he would rest a few moments before dinner.

At the request of deceased held today, Dr. H. M. Pond testified that death was due to heart disease. Collins had been a resident of this city for twenty-five years.

Collins was formerly in the employ of the Western Equipment Company of San Francisco as a salesman. He is survived by a widow and children.

MAYOR OF ALBANY IS
TREED BY PEACE OFFICER

ALBANY, April 21.—Mayor George W. Brown, crossing Cerrito creek, the bridge between Albany and Contra Costa county to obtain pussy willow branches, was treed by peace officers of Albany, but he finally managed to escape before they learned who he was.

Accompanied by R. Gould, clerk of the health commission, Mayor Brown thought to raid the local school by obtaining branches to decorate the hall for a dance. Gould carried the ax while Brown climbed the tree.

The constable at Rust heard the commotion and sought out the trespassers. Gould fled when he saw him, but Brown hid among the branches until the constable walked some distance beyond him and then he took to the creek, where the constable gave chase, but Brown was too fleet of foot.

The constable brought the ax to Albany and asked for the owner, as he wished to return it. He thought the joke was really on him.

SKULL FRACTURED BY KICK FROM HORSE

ALAMEDA, April 21.—S. M. McClellan, a driver for the Holist Coal and Feed Company, who was injured by a kick from a horse, was removed to the Alameda Sanatorium last night. The injured man is expected to recover. He is attended by Dr. Joe Hamilton of Fruitvale. McClellan is 40 years of age and unmarried. McClellan lives in Melrose.

$500 SECURED FROM DAY NURSERY BENEFIT

BERKELEY, April 21.—Society women of Berkeley who were in charge of the entertainment given at the high school auditorium last night for the benefit of the Berkeley Day Nursery, today estimated that they had secured approximately $500. This sum will be used to make the first payment on the property now used by the nursery in Tenth street.

MR. AND MRS. E. K. TAYLOR
HOSTS AT DINNER

ALAMEDA, April 21.—Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Taylor acted as hosts at a dinner party given at their home last evening when they entertained several friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor dispensed lavish hospitality. Their home is the scene of many social affairs. The dinner party last evening was one of the most delightful functions of the season. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chester D. Martin and C. Peyton Kane.

THREE INTERPRETERS
NEEDED IN TRIAL

BERKELEY, April 21.—Three interpreters of Greek, Latin and Finnish were necessary this afternoon when the preliminary examination of Evangelos Anagnostopoulos, a Greek, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to commit murder upon a countryman, was called in Judge Edgar's court. The case will occupy the entire afternoon.

A Dairy Necessity

Nothing absorbs impurities so quickly as milk. To insure healthful milk and butter, absolute cleanliness is necessary. All milk buckets, strainers, etc., should first be rinsed with cold water to remove the new milk which would curdle in hot water. Then wash in warm water to which a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder has been added, rinse and scald thoroughly with hot water, then leave in the air and sun for at least twelve hours before they are used again. Have plenty of cloths, washing them in the Gold Dust suds, same as the utensils.

TO BUILD NEW PARISH HOUSE

The North Congregationalists of Berkeley Plan Structure to Be Used Later as Gym.

BERKELEY, April 21.—North Berkeley Congregational Church last night adopted the report of its building committee and authorized an immediate financial campaign for the erection of a proposed edifice from plans furnished by Francis W. Reid, the architect.

The congregation and Sunday school long since outgrew the present accommodations of the remodeled building at Cedar and Oxford streets. The recommendations of the building committee include the expenditure of $1500 upon the present building to fit it with class rooms for Sunday school purposes, and the building of a new structure.

The building will be located on the corner of a parish house to cost $11,500. This building will be occupied for a time as an auditorium, but will eventually be used for a gymnasium and other activities of an institutional church.

The committee last week secured by purchase the southeast corner of Cedar and Washington streets, the site of the present church property, 53x135 feet. The plans include the erection of a stone or brick church to seat 1000 people. This part of the project will be deferred for the present.

The parish house will seat about 600 persons and will be fitted with pews and all the requirements of a modern auditorium. The exterior will be faced with stone to correspond with the present building, of which it will form a part, and stained glass windows will be put in.

Rev. S. C. Patterson, pastor of the church, is ex-officio a member of the committee and Professor Charles Gilman Hyde is the chairman. The other members are Fred W. Dorn, Geo. H. DeKay, George P. Gow, John McCarthy, Rev. Dr. Robinson, Walter T. Martin, Mrs. Henry G. Macaulay and Mrs. Harry Fowden.

MORMON CHURCH TO PROBE BRITISH CHARGES

Joseph F. Smith Brands as False Accusations of the London Religionists.

GOV. SPRY TO TAKE HAND IN PROBING

President of Institution and State Will Work Together in Investigation.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 21.—For the first time in the history of the Mormon Church a concerted movement has been started by the church and state authorities to secure an investigation of current charges made in England in connection with an anti-Mormon agitation that is now in existence in that country, to the effect that the church is inducing the emigration of women for immoral purposes.

Supplementary to the ecclesiastical investigation proposed by the church authorities, Governor Spry has suggested a civil investigation. In reply to a query from a London newspaper, Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, has sent the following cablegram:

DENIES CHARGES.

"Charges maintained in your telegram are absolutely and totally false. Polygamy is forbidden by Mormon Church as well as by the Utah laws. No women or girls are imported by the church from any country for immoral purposes. Stories are without foundation. False investigation will prove beyond question. All emigration from England is conducted under parliamentary provisions. The White Star and Dominion lines used for Mormon immigration have full licenses which correspond with those kept at Mormon headquarters at Liverpool and show every particular concerning emigrants. State officials here will inquire into any cases of the kind alleged if names are furnished. We will aid in the investigation." (Signed) JOSEPH F. SMITH.

CHURCHES PROTEST.

A recent dispatch received from London announced that a meeting would be held in that city April 23 by representatives of the different religious denominations for the purpose of protesting against Mormonism.

100 WALL STREET MEN ARE CAUGHT IN RAID

NEW YORK, April 21.—Eleven hundred dollars of Wall street cash is in the hands of the police today as the proceeds of a raid on an alleged gambling house in the heart of the financial district late today. The detectives found 100 well dressed men of prosperous appearance engaged in games of chance. All but eight of the scared roomful were allowed to depart upon giving the police their names and addresses. The $1100 represents the total amount of cash which was on the various tables at the moment.

CAMPBELL CAUGHT BY TEXAS POLICE

Man Accused by Former Oakland High School Girl, Under Arrest.

MARTINEZ, April 21.—Sheriff R. H. Vele of Contra Costa county has gone to El Paso, Tex., to take into custody Robert Campbell, a prominent resident of Antioch, who was captured there a few days ago on a felony charge, after disappearing from his home three months ago, when the complaint was filed against him by Miss Lottie Soules, a former Oakland High School girl and a resident of San Leandro.

The capture of Campbell was effected by the authorities after obtaining a clew to the whereabouts of his fiancée, Miss Blanche Hamilton, a Stockton milliner, who left her home shortly after the disappearance of Campbell. Certain that the couple would meet and probably marry in some other state, the authorities followed Miss Hamilton from Stockton to Oakland, thence to San Jose, Los Angeles and finally to El Paso, notifying the police authorities to hunt for Campbell in all these cities.

He was finally discovered in company with Miss Hamilton in the Texas city, where he was arrested upon telegraphic dispatches. Sheriff Vele was notified of the capture immediately, and left this evening for the south. The preliminary examination of Campbell will be held in the justice court at Antioch.

CAPTAIN A. L. HALL DIES IN PORTLAND

The Master of Ill-Fated Walla Walla Never Recovers Consciousness.

PORTLAND, April 21.—Never having regained consciousness since Friday night when he fell ill from an attack of apoplexy, Captain A. L. Hall, superintending stevedore for the Portland and Astoria Steamship Company and of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company, died yesterday at St. Vincent's Hospital.

On the coast Captain Hall became widely known when he was master of the ill-fated steamer Walla Walla, which sank in a collision with the French bark Max off Cape Mendocino on January 2, 1902. The Walla Walla was being operated by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company between Seattle and San Francisco in the freight and passenger trade.

After that disaster Captain Hall decided to remain ashore. A number of years ago he was superintending stevedore for the Pacific Mail Company, at Yokohama. He enjoyed a wide circle of acquaintances in San Francisco and here.

LINCOLN'S NAME FOUND ON LOG

The Carving Supposed to Have Been Made by President in 1832.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 21.—William Morgan, residing at Osbornville, Christian county, carried to the State house yesterday a piece of red elm log measuring nineteen and one-half inches in length and bearing on one side carved inscription.
"A. Lincoln, March 7, 1832."
Morgan, who has been the possessor of the log for more than a year, gave it into the keeping of the Illinois State Historical society. That the log, found a little over a year ago in a pile of drift in the Sangamon river, was originally carved by Lincoln, is the belief of Morgan and his neighbors.

GREAT DREDGER IS WRECKED IN ACCIDENT

Two Men Have Narrow Escape
When Bucket Falls
With Load.

WORK ON NEW CITY HALL
IS DELAYED 2 WEEKS

Workers in Pit Dodge Death
When the Giant Scoop Drops.

Through the breaking of an iron casting on the mast of the big clam shell dredger being used by Just Anderson in excavating for the new $1,000,000 City Hall, the huge bucket carrying a load and weighing with the boom close to ten tons, dropped into the pit. The entire machine was wrecked, and Henry Newsum and Giuseppe Kimenez, two laborers, narrowly escaped by leaping to one side from being crushed under the scoop and boom.

The breaking of the casting will probably delay work for about a week on the excavation, and will entail the expenditure of close to $1000 in rebuilding the dredger. The mast will have to be taken down and a new casting fitted at the top. The circular table that permitted the big boom to swing was also smashed when the casting gave way, and as a result, mast, boom and table must be reconstructed before the equipment is in commission again.

TWO NARROWLY ESCAPE.

The big scoop had just dipped into the excavation for a load of clay, had been carried high into the air and was swinging over the hopper constructed to catch the load as it fell to drop it into a waiting wagon, when the casting broke. The bucket dropped, crushing the hopper and wrecking the machine. Two workmen in the pit narrowly escaped being struck by the bucket.

MARS UNINHABITED, SAYS PROF. AITKEN

Myriads of Unknown Worlds Without Doubt Sustain Life, Says the Eminent Scientist

CONCLUSIONS REACHED BY AITKEN

No evidence of intelligent life on Mars and no satisfactory evidence that the peculiar markings on that planet are canals. Of the solar system the earth alone is inhabited. Life undoubtedly exists in many forms on far-distant, unknown worlds.

"While possibly there may be some low forms of vegetable and animal life upon the planet Mars, nine-tenths of the astronomers believe that there is not one particle of evidence of intelligent life upon that planet." This was the judgment expressed by Professor R. S. Aitken of the Lick Observatory in his lecture last evening at the University of California on "Life in Other Worlds."

The question as to whether Venus could sustain life was said to depend upon the yet unsettled question whether the planet turns upon its axis once in about twenty-four hours, as does the earth, or only once in 225 days, the time of its revolution about the sun. Sufficient materials were said to be present for an atmosphere, but whether there was a sufficiently moderate temperature or terrible extremes depends upon the time of the revolution of the planet upon its axis. The surface of Venus is, it was said, perhaps partly hidden by its atmosphere, with the result that we cannot say whether life could exist there.

NEIGHBORS SOMEWHERE.

However, Professor Aitken was firmly of the opinion that somewhere in the universe we had neighbors, though not perhaps just like ourselves, for life is manifold in its various appearances.

"It seems stupendous egotism to hold that, in all the millions of worlds which exist in the heavens, among which our sun with all its planets forms a tiny isle in the ocean of infinite space, life alone exists on this little planet."

A photograph of one-twenty thousandth part of the heavens, taken at Mt. Wilson with an hour's exposure showed 100,000 stars in that part of the sky. There are at least 1,500,000,000 worlds within reach of that great instrument.

"Being ignorant upon the question of probabilities and taking a chance of a million to one, or of ten million to one, it is almost an absolute certainty," declared Professor Aitken, "that if only one star in a million is fit for life, 1500 stars will have planets fit for life. If the production of life upon the earth seems to be one of nature's chief functions, we cannot doubt that somewhere in space there are planets which are inhabited by life."

LIFE IN OTHER WORLDS.

It was pointed out at the beginning of the lecture that since life exists on all parts of our earth and in myriad forms, it would be folly to expect that life in other worlds would take on the forms familiar to us; and that while life might exist in other worlds under conditions unfavorable to life here, we could not know of it through the researches of astronomers and that consequently we must look for life under conditions favorable to life on the earth—that is, with the presence of water, air and of a temperature not too high nor too low.

MOON A DEAD WORLD.

Our constant attendant and most intimate friend, the moon, was said to carry no vapor, to show no clouds and therefore to have no water. "The moon must be regarded," said the lecturer, "as a dead world."

As to the outer planets, those further removed from the sun than our own world, Professor Aitken pointed out that their density is much less than that of the earth and of the inner planets; that they are all more or less gaseous.

JUPITER UNFITTED FOR LIFE.

"Jupiter's surface has clouds raised by the heat within Jupiter itself," said he. "The conditions of the surface are chaotic, there is no ocean or land, simply one conglomeration of gaseous material continually shifting and changing and altogether manifestly unfitted for life. Modern research has shown that the conditions of life are lacking; water and atmosphere are not there."

The density of Saturn was said to be less than that of Jupiter. The rings of Saturn, beautifully pictured upon the screen by the stereopticon, were said to be a conglomeration of closely crowded tiny moons. The planet Saturn, like Jupiter, was declared to be too hot for life. Uranus and Neptune, the outermost members of the solar system, are so far removed from us that they are best studied through the spectroscopy. They have reason to think that Uranus and Neptune are still more gaseous, said Aitken. The spectrum of each is similar to that of Jupiter and of Saturn.

PROBABLE EXTERMINATION ON VENUS.

In addition to the probability that Venus always keeps the same face turned toward the sun, it receives six times as much heat on any part of the surface exposed to the sun as does a corresponding area of the earth's surface, and the extreme heat resulting from this unchanging condition would make life impossible on the side toward the sun, while the correspondingly extreme cold on the side always removed from the sun would similarly make life impossible there. The planet was also said to be probably devoid of atmosphere and of water vapor.

The most interesting question as to the existence of "canals" upon the surface of Mars was discussed at some length by the lecturer, and illustrated by interesting photographs and drawings thrown upon the screen. The drawings by Prof. Lowell of the Observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz., showing canal-like markings, sharp, long, narrow, of a geometrical character, were particularly interesting. Prof. Lowell holds that it is not one-ninth or one-tenth as dense as our mountain tops, and that there is not enough water on the whole surface of the planet to fill one of our great lakes. Yet snow is found there, and clouds. The question is whether there is sufficient air and water to sustain life.

"With so little water to use, what sense would there be," asked Professor Aitken, "or what evidence of intelligence in constructing canals in a perfectly straight line across ocean and continent, plain and mountain, the width of the smallest line or marking being twenty miles?"

With a much larger telescope than that used by Prof. Lowell in his studies, the Italian astronomer, Schiaparelli, photographing the surface of Mars at the same time with Professor Lowell, found no trace of any network of canals. The sixty-inch reflector on Mount Wilson showed no canals, though many fine minor details were shown which were as fine as the canals. Professor Barnard, at the Yerkes observatory on Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, and Professor Hale, at Mount Wilson, have both failed to see the particular markings which Professor Lowell and his assistants claimed to see. Professor Barnard, it was said, had even visited Professor Lowell's observatory and studied his own photographs in vain. While there is the evidence of Professor Lowell's observations in favor of the existence of canals, there was said to be evidence of equal weight on the other side against their existence, so that Professor Aitken declared "We can not accept the evidence of the canals."

QUAKES RECORDED AT STATE COLLEGE

Seismograph at Berkeley Registers Three Earth Shocks.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 2.—The university authorities have reported three earthquakes recorded by the observatory seismograph within the last two days. All were local disturbances. The first began yesterday at 12:20 p. m., its perceptible motion ending at 12:23. It originated at a distance of a little more than 24 miles.

The second shock occurred last evening at 9:40:48 and lasted until 9:43. This was also about a distance of twenty-five miles from Berkeley. The third occurred this morning at 4:39, the perceptible movement lasting one minute. The direction and distance could not be ascertained.

The seismograph also registered "principal motions" or large waves of a middle distance earthquake last evening, beginning about 6:45 p. m. It was not of a local nature.

Rear Admiral Richard Inch, Retired, Is Dead

Was Promoted for Bravery During the Battle of Manila Bay.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Rear Admiral Richard Inch, U. S. N., retired, died in the naval hospital here today after an extended illness. NEW FACILITIES FOR HANDLING FREIGHT MADE

Additional facilities for the expeditious handling of freight to and from the Santa Fe railroad will be inaugurated within a few days when the leveling off and macadamizing of the ground around the new freight terminal at Twentieth and Adelphi streets is completed. The arrival of carload freight nearer to the business center of town on the Santa Fe line has long been looked forward to by Oakland's merchants. The railroad will now be in the position to make team delivery of freight from the new depot which will take considerably less time than from the terminal at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB HAVE THEATER PARTY

Following a regular meeting of the Five Hundred Club the members and their friends enjoyed a luncheon at a downtown cafe, concluding the day's pleasure with a theater party at the Orpheum. SPEEDY CARS GIVE FINISHING TOUCH TO TRIALS

Big Auto Parade to Be Held in Oakland Streets Saturday Evening.

FAST DRIVERS TO BE AT THE MOTORDROME

Men Who Have Made Reputations for Daring to Be at Wheels.

Tomorrow morning, the riders and drivers entered in Sunday's races at the Motordrome will have their last chance to speed around the new half-mile track at Elmhurst. For that matter the training grind for most of the contestants is at an end and the work from now on will be only to tune up to the highest point of efficiency.

This morning five of the six cars that will line up Sunday were out for their last trial. Of all the speedy cars, less has been heard of the Velle than any other. It is the dark horse of the race and its probable chances would be a hard matter. This much can be said of it; wherever it has appeared in a race of 100 miles or under it has always shown consistently and can be counted upon to come in under the wire away up among the leaders.

SPEEDY LITTLE CAR.

One car that will surprise many is the little Ford. The Motordrome is just suited for this type of car. All the speed the little motor of this 20-horse power speeder will develop will be used to good advantage. Mile after mile, every day it has been out has been made in 54 seconds and under. This performance is the equal of some of the other bigger cars.

Johnny Jenkins will return tonight from Reno and upon his arrival at the Motordrome street tomorrow morning will make haste for the Motordrome and pitch camp there.

Later, among the automobile and motorcycle men is at a high pitch. Everyone of them is looking forward with eagerness to inaugurate a meet on Sunday.

EVENING PARADE.

The parade scheduled for tomorrow night will start at 8 o'clock from the flagpole at Seventeenth street and Broadway. It will be divided in four sections. The first will be the parade of the streets leading into the junction at Seventeenth and Broadway. The route of the parade will be down Broadway to Second street, back and up to Eighth street, thence to Washington to Fifteenth street, Broadway to Twelfth and down Twelfth to Webster. Here the line will disband.

A number of city officials including the Mayor, have accepted the invitation of Manager Prince and will be his guests on Sunday. A portion of the grandstand has been set aside for them exclusively. Promptly at 2:30 the first race will start and the others will follow at intervals of but a few minutes. Percy Walker, referee of the meet, is a stickler for the running of these events with all possible dispatch.

The drivers named to handle the six autos are as follows: The Cole, No. 1, Jenkins, Cole, No. 2, S. W. Barker, Ford, O'Brien, Velle, Thompson, Cutting, McNay, and Maxwell. Earl Cooper, who is the best known driver, is one of these dare devils, three of whom are eastern pilots making their premier appearance in this section. The Comet, a winner in many races around the bay, has been driven by Cooper for the last few years. Earl handled the Maxwell in the light car race which was won by Cooper. The little Ford, which has been driven by Cooper for the last few years, has been driven by Cooper for the last few years.

Barker and Jenkins have both seen battle in Vanderbilt cup classics and have a world of experience to their credit. Either one looks good as both have fast cars.

VITAL SUBJECTS TREATED BY MISS A. F. BROWN

Problems Confronting Educators Enumerated by Candidate at Home Club Meeting

Miss Annie Florence Brown, nominee for school director No. 5, was the guest of honor and the speaker at a reception and luncheon given by the Home Club yesterday afternoon where society and club women greeted the popular candidate.

In the course of her address she spoke at length upon the expressions uttered by ex-President Theodore Roosevelt in the Earl lectures given in the Hearst Greek theater recently. "Roosevelt dwelt at length on the fact that California could no longer bring to the other states as an excuse for any failure to accomplish the best aims, its youth. He pointed out, not only to the students, but to the parents, that we are no longer in the pioneer stage of development; that we are three generations removed from that stage. We could no longer use that excuse for lack of advancement of educational institutions. We can no longer call for a spirit of toleration from Eastern states. We have advanced so rapidly in our commercial interests, we need no toleration from the other states in that line, and we must not expect it when it comes to educational matters.

NEED OF GOOD TIMBER.

"In order that our schools may cope with schools of other cities, we must place upon our board of education only such persons as are qualified for that important office. We are no longer an insignificant hamlet, but a busy, active city, with varied interests. The schools may advance in proportion to our other activities, more care must be taken in the choice of our school directors.

"The schools have grown to such an extent and education has become so complicated that the community must demand more of its school directors, and to be successful in that office one should have at least three necessary qualifications—education, experience and temperament.

"As the school is the institution whose business it is to give children the education to equip them for service in life, one must have varied interests. The school director himself in order to administer it to others; he must understand the points it involves from the kindergarten through the university. I do not hold that one must of necessity be a university graduate to be a successful school director, but I do maintain that the man who has had either a university education or its equivalent to accomplish the highest good in the educational work of his community.

EXPERIENCE NEEDED.

"The second qualification for a successful school director is experience. I do not necessarily mean actual teaching in the school room, which, however, I consider invaluable. If it can be had without the exclusion of a broader view of life, experience in educational matters means not only a knowledge of all topics that touch the lives of growing children, but means a keen insight into the vital problems endangering the moral conditions of the boys and girls, so soon to be the men and women of the next generation.

"The third qualification is temperament. By temperament I mean not only understanding and sympathy with all educational problems, but time to devote to the solving of such problems, and willingness to give that time to look personally into all school affairs. This will often have to be done at the sacrifice of social functions and other personal pleasures.

WOMAN IS HELPFUL.

"It is here that I think a woman can be helpful to the mothers of the community, and should I have the honor to be elected one of your school directors I should think it a privilege to develop and consider me as a medium of communication between the mothers and the school authorities.

"In order that we may be more helpful to each other I will enumerate briefly five topics of educational interest that are now being discussed by the thinking people of this community, and will discuss them to be discussed by our own board of education. The topics are: Kindergartens, intermediate high schools, problems of co-education in high schools, teaching of sexual physiology in our schools, need of more practical training for the boys and girls who are going into business.

PART OF SYSTEM.

"The topic of kindergartens is being discussed with great interest in this community. Should we make them a part of our public school system? Some effort has already been made in this direction. If the young child is to begin his education in the kindergarten, should that department not be under the same executive board that supervises the remainder of his school training? This plan met with success when introduced elsewhere. Or should we continue to maintain by private subscriptions, as we have been doing? This is a matter of importance to the mothers of this community, a matter that they should think of and discuss.

"By the intermediate high school is meant that gathering together of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades into a system like our high school. A few advantages of this system are these: The beginning of modern languages and manual training under competent teacher; also the bringing of the vast difference between the grammar and high schools.

SOME OBJECTIONS.

"Some of the objections may be the extra cost of additional expert teachers; the temporary upsetting of our present grammar school system and the taking of time from the fundamental studies. These I bring as a mere suggestion.

"As to co-education during the high school age—there is much to be said on both sides of this question. The main object of a school should be to train for life. The life of a girl and the life of a boy is to be very different.

"The boy, when he has attained manhood, must be prepared to support his family. One of the first requisites of a successful man is that he should be a good provider. The very fact of his going into business for this purpose gives him opportunity to come in touch with the great problems of life, to develop his mental capacity and the dignity of his character.

AVENUES OF KNOWLEDGE.

"The girl will not have this same opportunity after ending her school days, therefore many avenues of knowledge must be opened to her during her school years. Permanent interests in life must be awakened in her during this time. She must be prepared to be not only a helpful member of her community, but the central power of her home, the intelligent guardian of her child. Can this be accomplished best for her in a co-educational school? From a moral standpoint, does the continual association of boys and girls in the high school age, during hours of study and play, develop our strongest men and women? Is it true that the girls have an uplifting influence upon the boys?

"Would separating them at this age make our girls wiser and insipid women? Our boys awkward and ill-mannered men? It is a topic worthy of our consideration.

TOUCHES THE HOME.

"The subject dealing with the physiology in our schools is one of vital importance because it touches the home. It is true that the immorality that sometimes exists among girls and boys of an early age is greatly due to ignorance of the laws of nature. Huxley, the great scientist, who devoted much of his time and knowledge gained from original research to uplifting the moral condition said, knowledge of the facts of science is the soundest basis for moral law!

"It seemed to me that the place to teach this was in the sacredness of the home, from her, who should be to the child the greatest of teachers—his mother. But if it is not being done there, where shall it be done if not in the school?

HIGHER THINGS OF LIFE.

"Are we giving insight into some of the higher things of life? Are we showing them that education means not only making a living, but the making of a life? Are we best fitting the girl for her duty in life? Although many who do not go to college may earn their living for a few years, they ultimately marry. Have we helped these girls to become better wives and mothers? Could we not do more to make them a higher type of womanhood, a more intelligent factor in the home, a more valuable member of society? Could they not be taught in the home, a more valuable member in society? Could they not be taught a broader domestic science, including not only household sanitation, but the artistic arrangement of the home? Would not a course in simple nursing be helpful?

"The complicated life of today calls for more virtues in a successful woman than it did a few years ago. College will not only lengthen her happy days, but it will keep her body well, as there is no greater stimulus to good health than a mind kept busy with noble work. It will change and broaden her ideals of manhood and womanhood. College days are not days of mere book-learning, but associations with great living minds. It will give her higher and more permanent interests in her later life. It will develop in her a spirit of helpfulness, not only in the home, but in the community. It will teach her that a woman's life is to be that of service; her mission, to minister, rather than to be ministered to."

AN ORDINANCE GRANTING

SIGNED, THE RIGHT HONORABLE JAMES H. HAYES, GOVERNOR, AND FRANCHISE FOR THE PERIOD OF 25 YEARS, TO LAY DOWN, CONSTRUCT, MAINTAIN, AND OPERATE BY STEAM OR ELECTRICITY, OR BOTH, OR OTHER LAWFUL MOTIVE POWER, A DOUBLE TRACK STANDARD GAUGE RAILROAD, AND THE RIGHT OF WAY THEREOF, THROUGH THE CITY AND LAND, COUNTY OF ALAMEDA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.
 READ AND ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF OAKLAND AS FOLLOWS:
 SECTION 1.—The right, privilege, franchise is hereby granted to Central Pacific Railway Company, its successors and assigns, for the period of 35 years, to lay down, construct, maintain, and operate, by steam or electricity, or both, or other lawful motive power, a double track standard gauge railroad in the City and County of Alameda, State of California, along and upon a route described as follows:
 COMMENCING at a point on the existing tracks of the Central Pacific Railway Company, 200 feet, more or less, southerly from the southerly line of said street; thence along the right of way of said Central Pacific Railway to a point on the westerly line of said street; thence along the right of way of said Central Pacific Railway southerly from the southerly line of said Lloyd street; thence crossing said Fruitvale avenue at a point on the easterly line of said street; thence southerly from the northerly line of said Lloyd street; thence across private property to Bassett street; thence crossing said street; thence southerly from the northerly line of said Lloyd street; thence entering private property of said William A. Grandon at a point 450 feet, more or less, northerly from the southerly line of said Lloyd street; thence entering private property of said Grandon, and crossing Central Pacific Railway to a connection with the existing track of said railway.
 SECTION 2.—There shall be laid upon or across said railroad said tracks, and maintained so as to conform as nearly as possible to the official grades of the streets and avenues laid upon or across which it shall be laid; and in case such grades shall be at any time changed, the grade of such railroad shall be changed to conform as nearly as possible to such changed grades.
 SECTION 3.—Said grantee, its successors and assigns, shall place or replace upon said railroad said tracks, and macadamize the entire length of portions of said streets or avenues used by said railroad, and shall lay down and maintain for two feet on each side thereof and between the tracks, and shall keep the same constantly in repair, and the work of laying down and repairing said tracks, its successors or assigns, shall be done with the same kind of material as is used on the remaining width of the street or avenue, and shall be performed to the satisfaction of the Street Superintendent of the City of Oakland.
 SECTION 4.—The tracks of said railroad shall be of standard gauge and shall be laid down and constructed in a good and substantial manner, and shall be laid out to cause the least possible obstruction to travel.
 SECTION 5.—All poles, wires, used in connection with the extension of said franchise, shall be placed at a sufficient height above the ground to avoid obstruction to the ordinary travel of said streets and avenues, and poles and wires shall be erected to the satisfaction of the Department of Electricity of the City of Oakland.
 SECTION 6.—Work to construct said railroad must be commenced in good faith within four months after the taking of the same by the Ordinance, and must be completed within three years thereafter, unless the time for such completion be extended by the City Council, in the manner provided by law. If said work be not commenced and completed as herein provided, said franchise shall be null and void.
 SECTION 7.—This Ordinance shall take effect immediately.
 In Council, Oakland, Cal., April 7th, 1914.
 Passed to print by the following vote: Ayes: Messrs. Baccus, Bronner, Cobbledick, Dwyer, Ellis, Everhart, York and President Penland—8.
 Noes: None.
 Absent Messrs. Ellsworth, Everhart, and MacGregor—3.
 Attest: FRANK R. THOMPSON, City Clerk.

NOTICE OF HEARING OF PETITION FOR RAILROAD FRANCHISE.
 Notice of hearing of petition of present owners and applicants and petition of Oakland and Bay Shore Railway Company, a railroad corporation, to the council of the City of Oakland, for a railroad franchise, and for the right of way and set for hearing of the same by said council.
 The said notice is hereby given that the OAKLAND and BAY SHORE RAILWAY COMPANY, a railroad corporation, has applied to, and petitioned, the Council of the City of Oakland, for a franchise, and for the right of way and set for Oakland to grant the same, for a period of fifty (50) years, to construct, lay down, maintain, and operate a standard gauge, with all necessary tracks, side-tracks, connections, poles, wires and other appliances and adjuncts necessary to the construction, maintenance, and operation of said railroad, to be operated by electricity or such other improved mode of motive power as may be found practicable, except steam locomotives, over, along, upon and into the terminal grounds, yards, depots and properties of said Oakland and Bay Shore Railway, and over, along and upon the following described route in said City of Oakland, to wit: COMMENCING at a point on the said route following a center line, said center line being described as follows, to wit:
 Commencing at a point on Shafter avenue intersects the center line of Fort-street; thence southerly along the center line of Shafter avenue across Forty-first street, Forty-second street, Forty-third street, Forty-fourth street, Forty-fifth street, Forty-sixth street, Forty-seventh street, Forty-eighth street, Forty-ninth street, Fiftieth street, Fifty-first street, Avon street, Cavour street, Clifton street, and College avenue to where said center line, if projected easterly, would intersect the center line of said street; thence southerly along the center line of said Shafter avenue, or a curve, where said center line would be intersected by the easterly line of Keith avenue; thence along the line mentioned line was projected northerly and thence southerly 845.55 feet measured along said center line of Shafter avenue, produced northerly to the center line of said street.
 And public notice is hereby given that the owners of two-thirds (2/3) of the front feet of lands upon the portions of said Shafter avenue, and upon said street tracks and railroads, have also applied to, and petitioned, the said Council of the City of Oakland, for a franchise, such right, privilege and franchise to said Oakland and Bay Shore Railway Company, a railroad corporation, for the term of fifty (50) years for the purpose aforesaid.
 And public notice is hereby further given that said petitioners have filed applications of said Oakland and Bay Shore Railway Company, a railroad corporation, and said private owners, for the right, privilege and franchise, have by Resolution No. 37522, duly passed by the City Council of the City of Oakland, and by the City of Oakland, and by the Council Chamber in the City Hall of the said City of Oakland, in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, on Monday the 8th of April, A. D. 1911, at the hour of 8 o'clock P. M. of said day, at which time and place and in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, and show cause, if any there may be, why the prayer of said petitions and applications should be granted.
 By order of the Council of the City of Oakland.
 Done in Oakland, California, April 30th, 1914.

WILD FLOWERS GO ON DISPLAY

Many Rare Specimens Will Be Gathered by Oakland Pupils.

Many rare specimens of wild flowers, gathered from various districts about the city, will be on exhibition tomorrow, wild flower day, in the children's room of the Oakland public library. The exhibition will be held from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening, and school children from every school in the city, as well as a large number of adults, will be in attendance. At last year's show more than 3000 visitors came to see the collection.

A committee composed of one teacher from each school is in charge and the specimens of flowers have been collected by the children of different schools selected by the committee. Among the districts represented will be Rock Ridge park and quarry, Diamond canyon, Tunnel road, Piedmont district, Trestle Glen, Leona heights, Lake Chabot, Joaquin Miller heights, Moraga road, Mill Valley and Mill college district.

LAST WITNESS OF TERRY SLAYING DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—One of the last surviving witnesses of the shooting of Judge Terry by United States Deputy Marshal David Neagle, while acting as bodyguard to Justice Field of the United States Supreme Court, passed away when Thomas Westworth Stackpole died April 11 at Eldridge, Sonoma county. Stackpole was buried April 13 at Sonoma city.

It was Stackpole's younger brother, then serving as cashier at the door of the Lathrop station restaurant, where the shooting occurred, who caught the arm of Mrs. Terry when, after the shooting of her husband by Neagle, she drew a small revolver from her satchel with the intent, it was suspected, of slaying her husband's lifelong enemy, Justice Field.

BOYS CONFESS SECOND CRIME

Joseph Piva and James Johnson Held for Alienist's Examinations.

Congenital criminal tendencies are believed to be responsible for the actions of Joseph Piva and James Johnson, aged 8 and 9 years respectively, who after being released on account of their youth when they confessed to a $200 burglary, repeated the offense within two days. The two boys, arrested last Saturday night for looting the residence of Mrs. W. H. Price of 922 Linden street and released the next day, went calmly back to their ill doing, breaking into the Cole school building and carrying away everything of value of a portable nature Tuesday night.

The two infant burglars have been turned over by Captain of Detectives Walter J. Petersen to the detention home and their case will be carefully considered there. The persistence of the youngsters in their careers of crime offers a strange problem to the juvenile officers, as there is no similar case on the records of the department. That there is a congenital tendency to theft is the belief of the police, and it may be possible that an examination of the children will be made by alienists.

CONFESS THEFT.

The police had some difficulty in tracing the burglary in the Price residence, but finally discovered that the two small boys were responsible. When arrested Saturday night they had $25 in coin, silverware valued at $20 and jewelry valued at $200 in their possession. They admitted the theft, and on account of their tender age were released after being admonished by Captain Petersen.

The Cole school was looted Tuesday night. Detective Richard McSorley was put to work on the case and traced the burglary to the two boys. Detectives McSorley and Flynn found the boy burglars in an old vacant house in West Oakland not far from the Cole school. They again admitted the offense and have been turned over to the detention home.

ANNUAL CABLE CHESS TOURNAMENT IS BEGUN

NEW YORK, April 21.—The opening of play today in the thirteenth annual cable chess match between America and Great Britain begins a contest that may definitely decide possession of the trophy given by the late Sir George Newnes. The British players won in 1909 and last year, and have only to capture this year's event to clinch their title to the $1000 trophy.

LONDON INTERESTED.

LONDON, April 21.—A little knot of enthusiasts watched the opening game today of the Anglo-American cable chess match. The English team is composed of A. Burn, H. G. Cole, H. B. Atkins, T. F. Lawrence, R. P. Mitchell, G. A. Thomas, V. L. Wahlitz, G. W. Richmond, E. D. Yates and W. Ward. The spectators were interested also in today's game between Frank J. Marshall of the American team and A. Burn, which was played across the board, Marshall being at present in England.

LOS ANGELES MAN IS UNDER ARREST

PORTLAND, Ore., April 21.—E. N. Frankhauser was arrested here on a warrant in connection with defalcations of public records in Los Angeles. The arrest was made on information furnished by T. W. Lloyd, a detective of Los Angeles, and is said to be connected with ordering police patrol boxes without the formality of competitive bidding.

$150,000 FOR MASTERPIECE.
NEW YORK, April 21.—The "Portrait of a Young Ecclesiastic," by Velasquez, has been purchased, it is announced, by Henry E. Huntington of Los Angeles for $150,000. It is the second Velasquez masterpiece brought into this country within a few months, the "Portrait of King Philip IV" having been recently sold, it is said, to Henry G. Frick for more than $200,000.

LOVELORN SWAIN SWALLOWS POISON

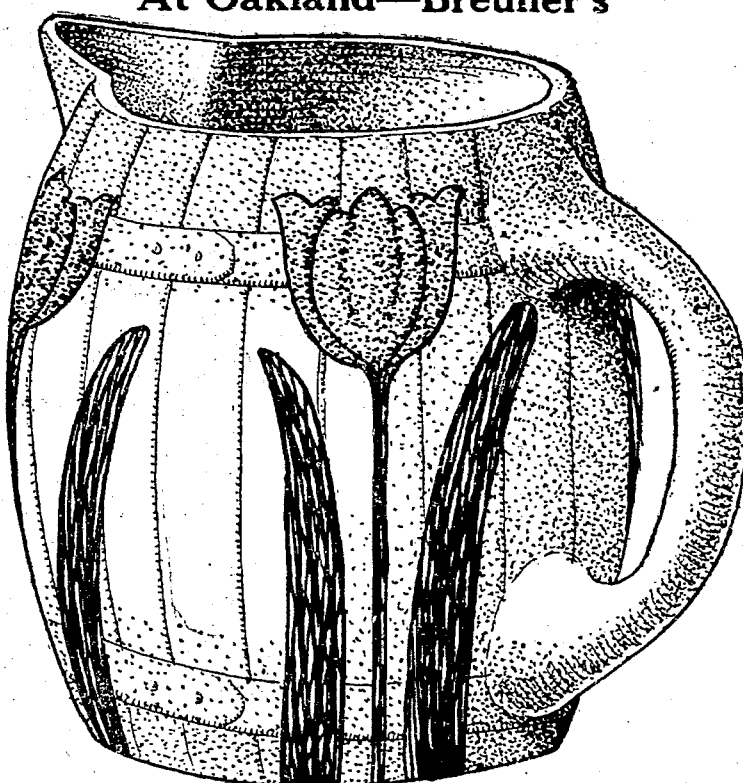

Scion of Wealthy House Seeks to Quench Burning Heart With Chloroform.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Charles A. Standish, 21 years old, son of a prominent family, attempted to commit suicide last night in his room at the Abbey hotel, 440 Post street, by swallowing four bichloride of mercury tablets and nearly all the contents of a small bottle of chloroform. He now lies at the Central Emergency hospital and is not expected to live.

Standish says his act was prompted through the rejection of his love by Winifred Boynton of Colorado Springs, daughter of Winfield Scott Boynton, one time candidate for Governor of Colorado. The girl married another man, but later confessing she did not love him, secured a divorce and promised to marry Standish. Then his mother, whom he says is a well-known society woman and Y. M. C. A. worker of Denver, objected to his marrying a divorcee and he was sent to Los Angeles about four months ago. He lost track of Miss Boynton, but unexpectedly met her about a week ago at Long Beach, but there she refused to marry him because she found the picture of another girl in his pocket. He says he bought the poison in Los Angeles.

He was found in his room yesterday by George Daly, a friend. He was first attended by a physician at the hotel and then sent to the hospital. Standish was at one time employed as clerk in the United States National bank of Denver. His father, who died about four years ago, was a wealthy meat packer of Detroit.
